Centennial '61

Gazing over a small pond at Wichita High School East stands a bronze pioneer with an Indian companion kneeling at his side, a memorial to a Kansas pioneer--J. Hudson McKnight.

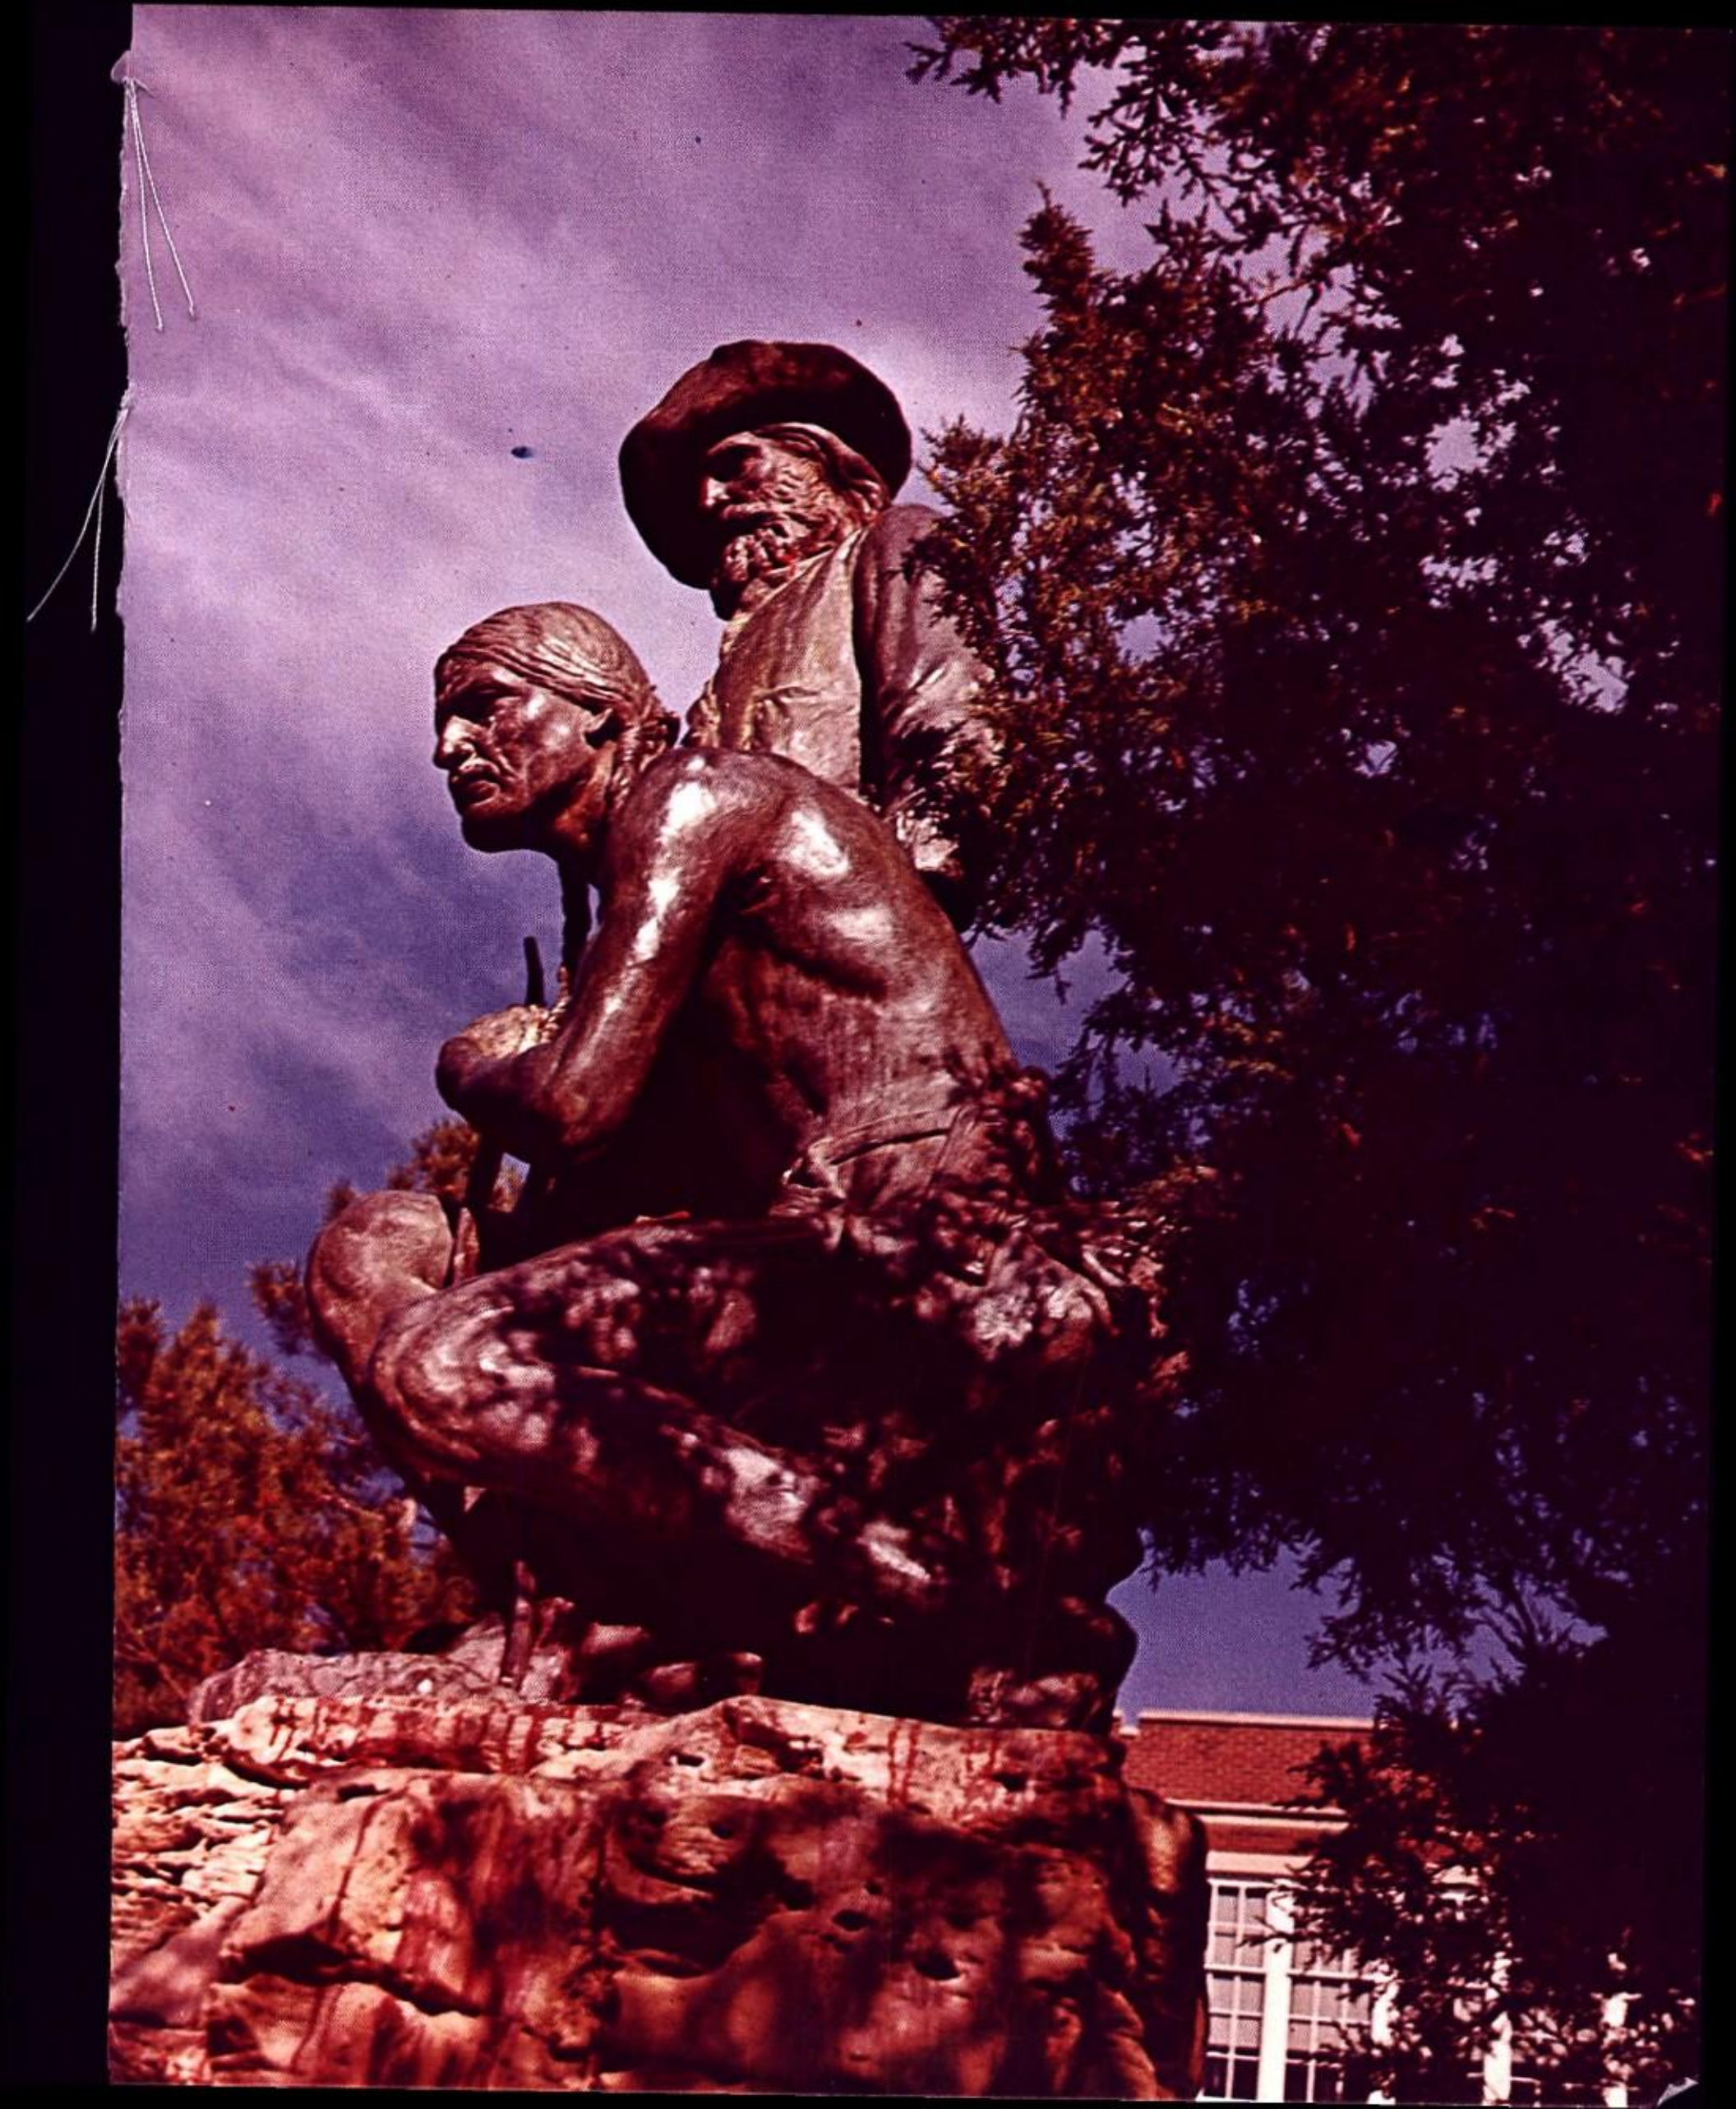
On this land wars were fought and lives were given so that a state might someday be formed. That dream came true in 1861, and the name of that state is Kansas.

In the center of Kansas a town grew up and in this town called Wichita, East High School, in its 37 wonderful years, has become important to the community. East has had an average enrollment of 3,000 for the past five years and has one of the largest high school campuses in the United States, covering 66 acres and boasting 10 buildings.

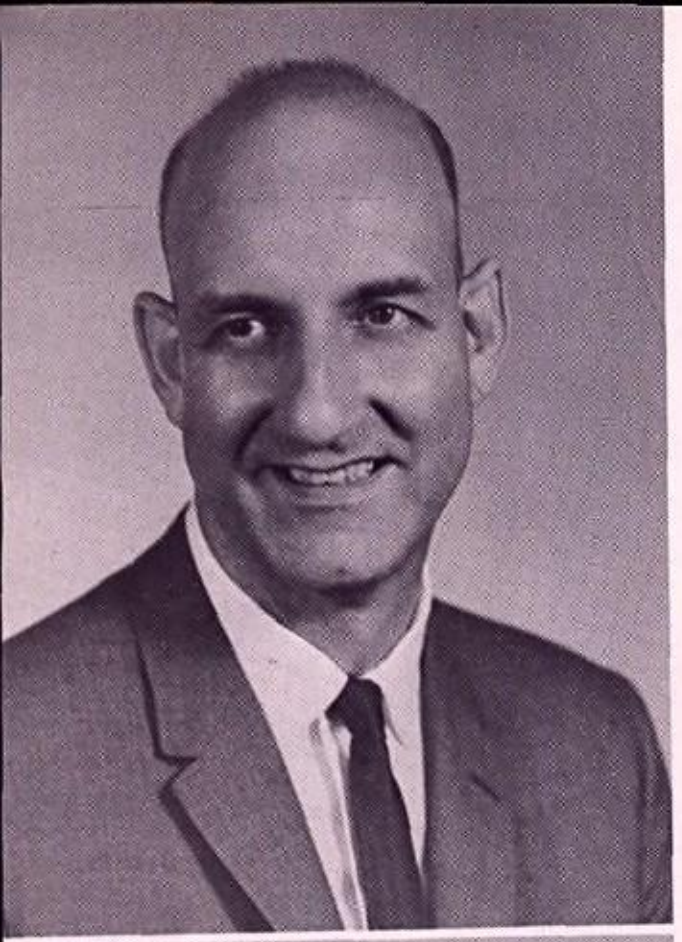
Not only is East big in size, but in educational opportunities. In comparison with the limited schooling of a century ago, today's student at East taking four subjects a year could spend 30 years without duplicating any course. Since the time Wichita High School added "East" to its name, 21,113 seniors, 855 in '61, have become proud alumni of one of the finest high schools in the state of Kansas.

Many changes have been made here since 1861, but the rustic statue overlooking the pond between Roosevelt Intermediate and East High stands as a touching reminder of those brave men who pioneered for the statehood of this land.

In this centennial year of 1961, this book and its recorded events are dedicated to the great State of Kansas.

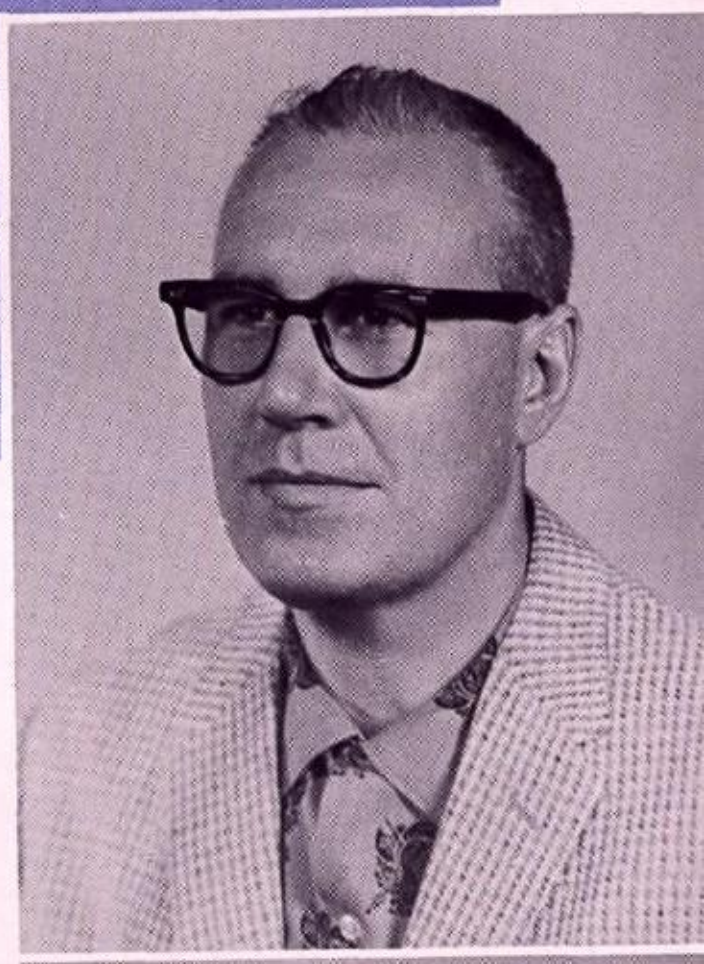


They Work For Us



VERNON KIRBY, vice-principal, has also been attendance counselor in his seven years at East. He graduated from high school in Coffeyville, Kansas.

MISS FLORA STEBBINS, assistant principal. While at East for 30 years, she has headed the girl's Physical Education Department and served as Dean of Girls. Miss Stebbins graduated from high school in Des Moines, Iowa.



SAMUEL PARZYBOK, attendance counselor, has been at East seven years. He has taught in the Business Department and is also East's military counselor. He graduated from high school in Vinton, Iowa.

ARZELL BALL has been assistant principal during his two years at East. He graduated from Cassville, Missouri, High School. Last year he received a Doctor's degree in Educations.

BIG MAN ON CAMPUS, East's capable principal, Sid F. Moore, greets students with a friendly smile.

Our Principal

"In my job, I like best the interesting, friendly, and sincere association with teachers and the student body," commented Principal Sid F. Moore, who has headed East High for the past nine years.

Mr. Moore was an all-a-round athlete in high school and a basketball and track man at Wichita University. With an interest in guns, but little time for hunting, Mr. Moore enjoys "trap shooting", a competitive sport in shooting skill.

SHOOTING CLAY PIGEONS gives Principal Sid F. Moore an opportunity to relax after a busy day.

GOLF, BOOKS, and the fine arts are a few of the favorite pastimes of Dr. Lawrence Shepoiser, superintendent of schools.

School Board

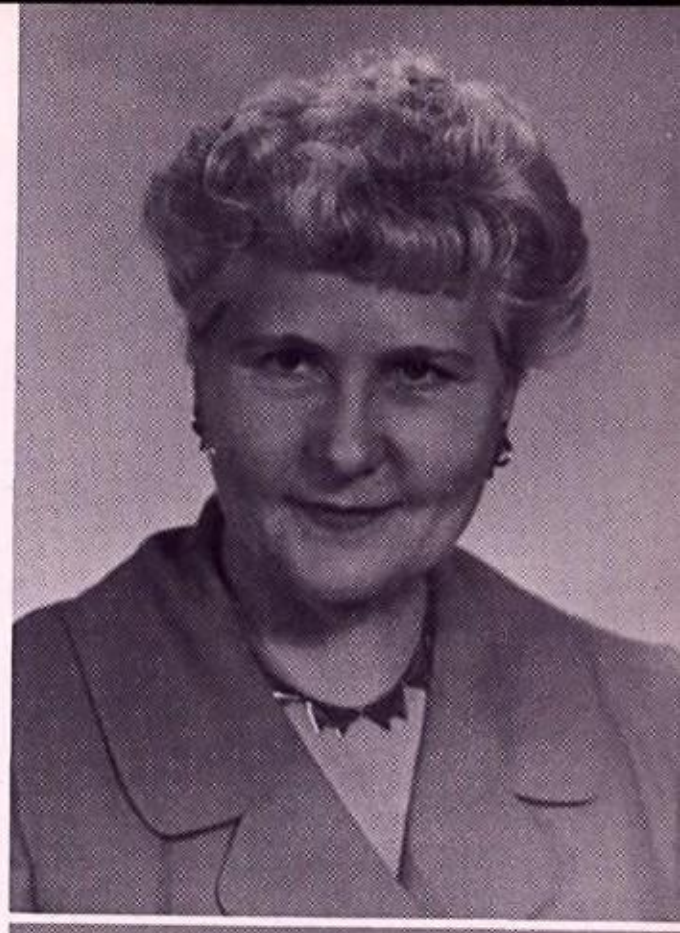
With the aid of Dr. Paul Harnley, director of secondary education, Dr. Shepoiser guides 12 Board members on programs for the benefit of the city's 101 public schools. Under the supervision of the Board are 81 elementary, 15 intermediate, and 5 high schools.

The engineering of two new elementary school buildings and major additions to three others, and the planning of integration are projects of the Board this year.

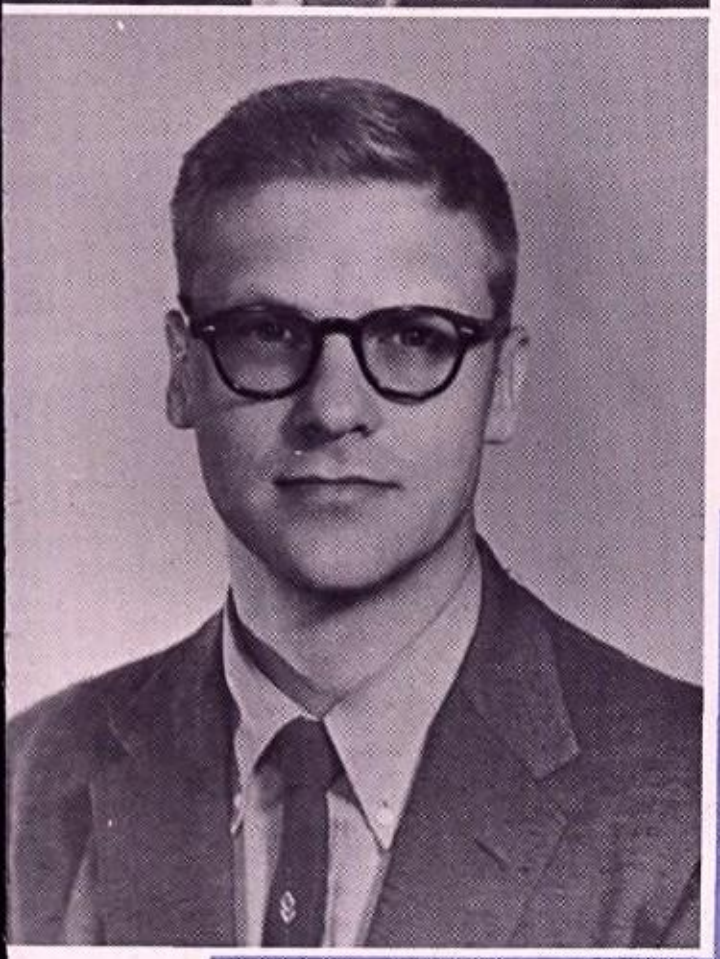
BOARD MEMBERS seated at the table are Mrs. D. Goodpasture, H. O. Lytle, Jr., Mrs. E. Weathers, P. H. Woods, J. E. Boyer, Dr. Shepoiser, Mrs. E. Collins, John Barrier, Garner E. Shriver, guest of the board; Dr. Sims, A. L. Wright, C. A. Bell, Jr., Mrs. E. Whitcomb, K. Frizzell, and L. E. Wilber.

ADMINISTRATION

MISS HARRIET HARDY, senior counselor, has been class counselor at East for two years. She graduated from Hyde Park High School in Chicago.



H. W. McKIMMEY, vocational director, has officiated as vice-principal and as head of the Industrial Arts Department during his 17 years at East. He graduated from Ft. Scott, Kansas, High School.



RICHARD ELVING, vocational counselor, has also taught social studies during his nine years at East. Mr. Elving is chairman of East's Counseling Department. He is a graduate of Lindsborg, Kansas, High School.

MRS. ELEANOR KING, junior counselor, has been at East for three years, changing from a homemaking teacher to class counselor this year. She graduated from Valley Center High School.

MRS. EDITH WORTHINGTON, sophomore counselor, has been a study hall teacher, attendance counselor, and a class counselor while at East for 11 years. She is a graduate of White City, Kansas, High School.

"They work for us" is very true of the wonderful staff in East's administration. They enforce rules and regulations and aid in student-teacher problems as the hub of the school and its functions.

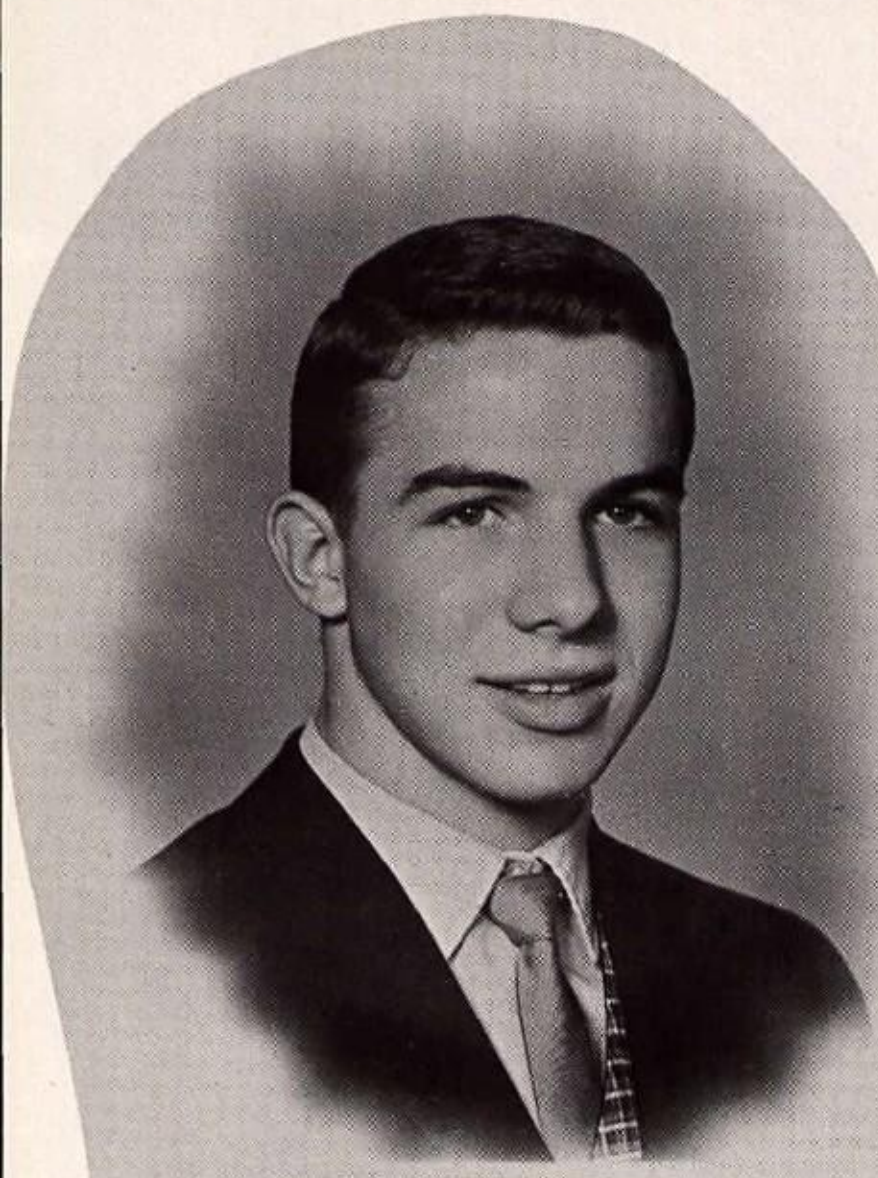
STUDENT LIFE

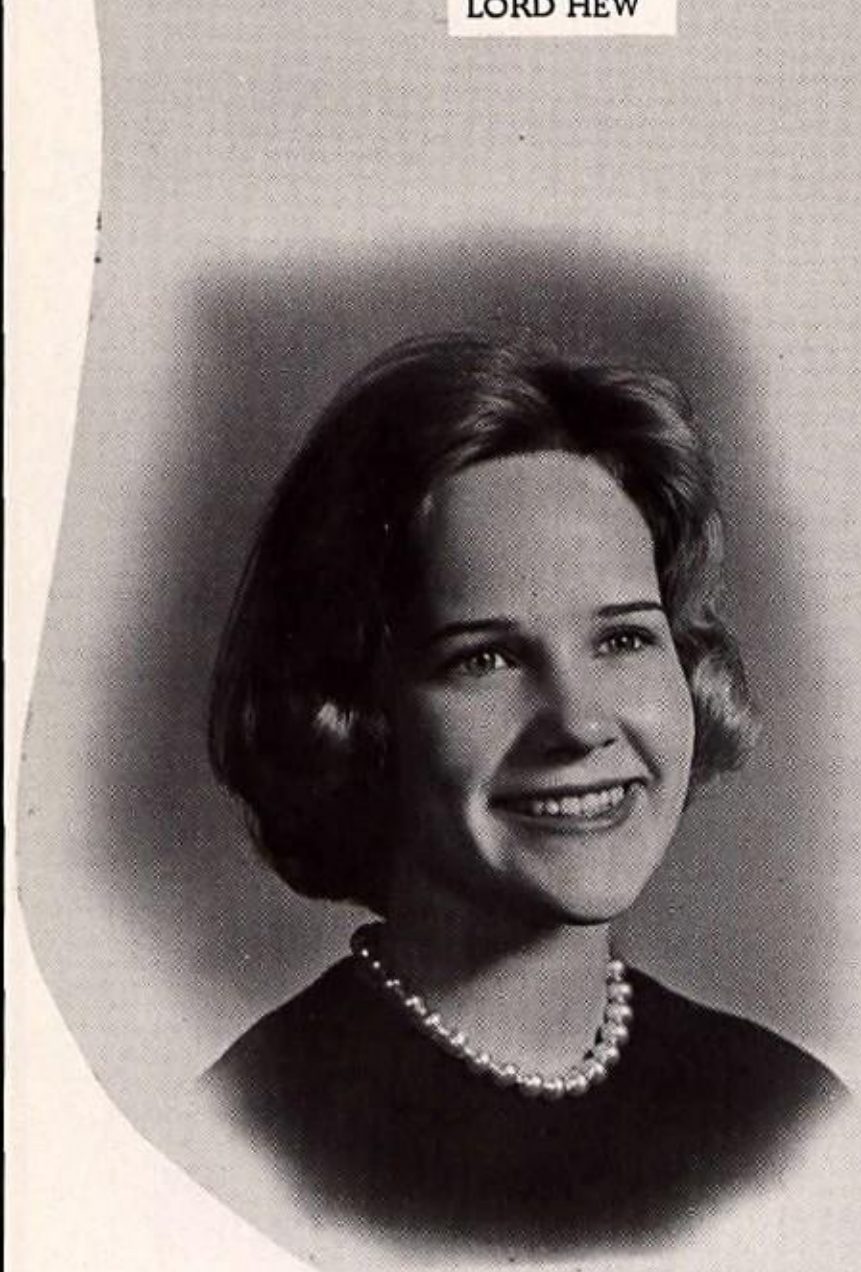
Lord And



LORD HEW

If anticipation and excitement hadn't preluded the evening of February 4th, it may not have been so perfect. If Judy and Hew had not been so charming as they entered the Sidman's Western Restaurant and then the Cotillion Ballroom, they would not have been the royal Lord and Lady that they were.

Without a corsage of white orchids and carnations, or a 1961 Chrysler Imperial from R. D. McKay to be chauffeured in; without dancing, or watching the Four Aces sing, this night might not have meant so much.



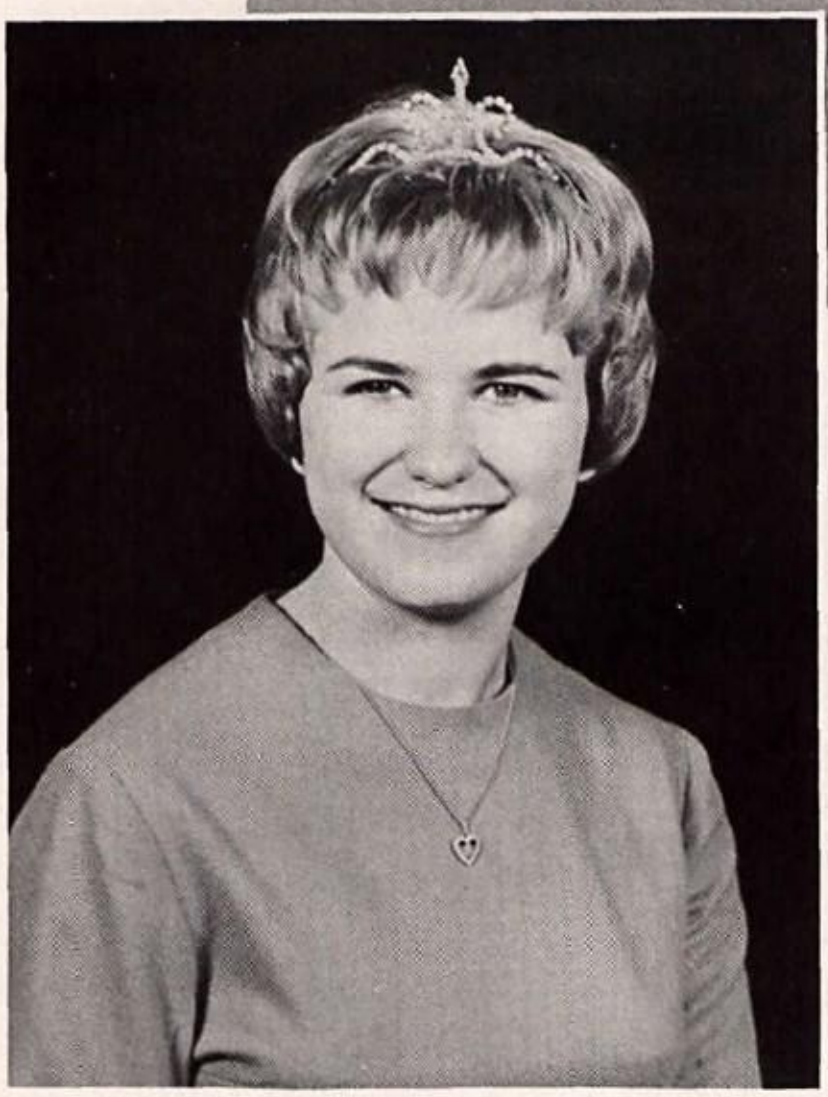
LADY JUDY

Lady Echo

If the Four Aces had not invited a member of the Echoes Staff to introduce Lord and Lady Echo, or if heaven had not offered a deep blanket of snow, it might not have meant complete enchantment for the 1961 Echoes' couple.

But all this came true and happiness prevailed for Hew Goodpasture, and Judy Ashmore, who were elected Lord and Lady Echo of 1961 by 1,500 yearbook subscribers.

Football Sweetheart



SWEETHEART JUDY

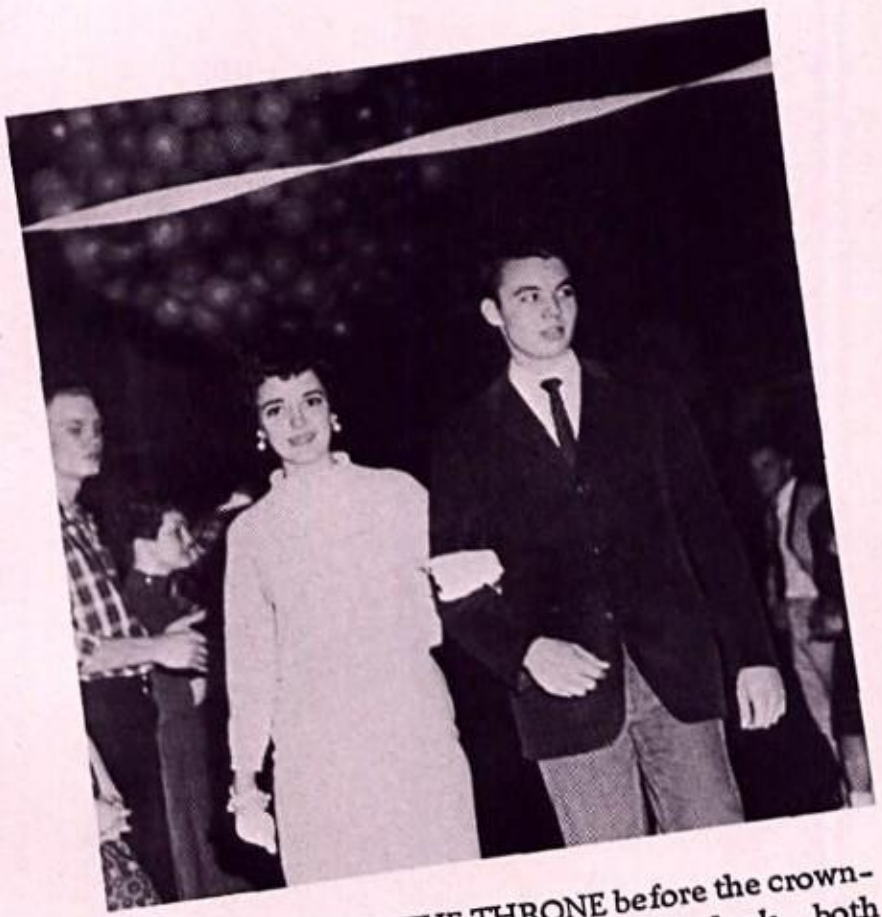
AFTER HER CORONATION, Football Sweetheart Judy Schwartz is driven from the field by Dick Price, while Larry Ledford looks on, all are '61.

Red roses and happy tears smothered Judy Schwartz, as she was crowned 1961 Football Sweetheart on October 14. The Aces were leading Shawnee-Mission East at the half when the three candidates and their escorts from the football team approached the throne, centered in a blue heart of Peppy Pilots.

Attendants, Jonnie Jo Allen with Bill Manire, and Joan Stromberg with Charlie Brown, smiled over the kiss that escort Larry Ledford bestowed upon Sweetheart Judy. Elected by the student body, the Queen and her attendants reigned the following evening at the Homecoming Dance.

AWAITING THE CROWNING of Football Sweetheart, Judy Schwartz, '61, by Larry Ledford, '61, are attendants and escorts, Bill Manire, Jonnie Jo Allen, Joan Stromberg, Charlie Brown and assistants, Nancy Dickerson and Vicki Wheeler, all '61.

Basketball Queen



APPROACHING THE THRONE before the crowning are Myrna Iddings and Ron Carlock, both '61.

QUEEN MYRNA

BASKETBALL QUEEN, Myrna Iddings, '61, is escorted by Ron Carlock, '61. Other attendants and escorts are Gary Robertson, Kay Curfman, Nancy Dickerson, Bob Mullen, and assistant Carol Nichols, all '61.

Multi-colored balloons covered a huge "basketball" as it hovered over couples dancing to Fred Young's band at the Basket-Ball, held in East's gym on February 18.

Sweet and radiant, Myrna Iddings was chosen Basketball Queen by the student body and her escort was Ronnie Carlock. Kay Curfman, escorted by Gary Robertson, and Nancy Dickerson, escorted by Bob Mullin, were the Queen's attendants. Aces watched the royal couples dance and then all the escorts stole a kiss from Queen Myrna. Ruling over the final North-East basketball game was part of the honor for the Queen and her attendants.

Blue

Jr.-Sr.

Misty moonlight sparkled on the first snow of the season for the eve of "Blue Moon," East's Junior-Senior Prom. Dainty snowflakes and an enormous blue moon enchanced the ceiling of the Moose Ballroom.

Breathlessly awaiting the outcome of the contest for King and Queen were candidates Margie Graham, Jonnie Jo Allen, Joan Stromberg, Judy Ashmore, Don Hyde, Larry Ledford, Bill Manire, and Gary Robertson.

QUEEN JOAN

FLUFFY BLUE angel hair, twined around throne supports by Mary Duerkson and Linda Howell, both '61, added a heavenly touch to the Prom.

Moon

Prom

Attendants to the King and Queen were juniors, YoYo Trevino and Larry Curfman, Leslie Blake and Dan Clothier, Lynn Trombold and Tyson Whiteside, and Martha Yanky and Bob Hanson.

At the magic hour of ten, came the announcement of His and Her Majesty... Larry Ledford and Joan Stromberg, East's choice for King and Queen of the Jr.-Sr. Prom for 1960.

As the 12th of December faded, Aces danced to the melodies of Bill Strout's band under the reign of King Larry and Queen Joan ENCHANTMENT FILLS the moment as Larry Ledford and Joan Stromberg, both '61, add the finishing touch to a regal crowning.

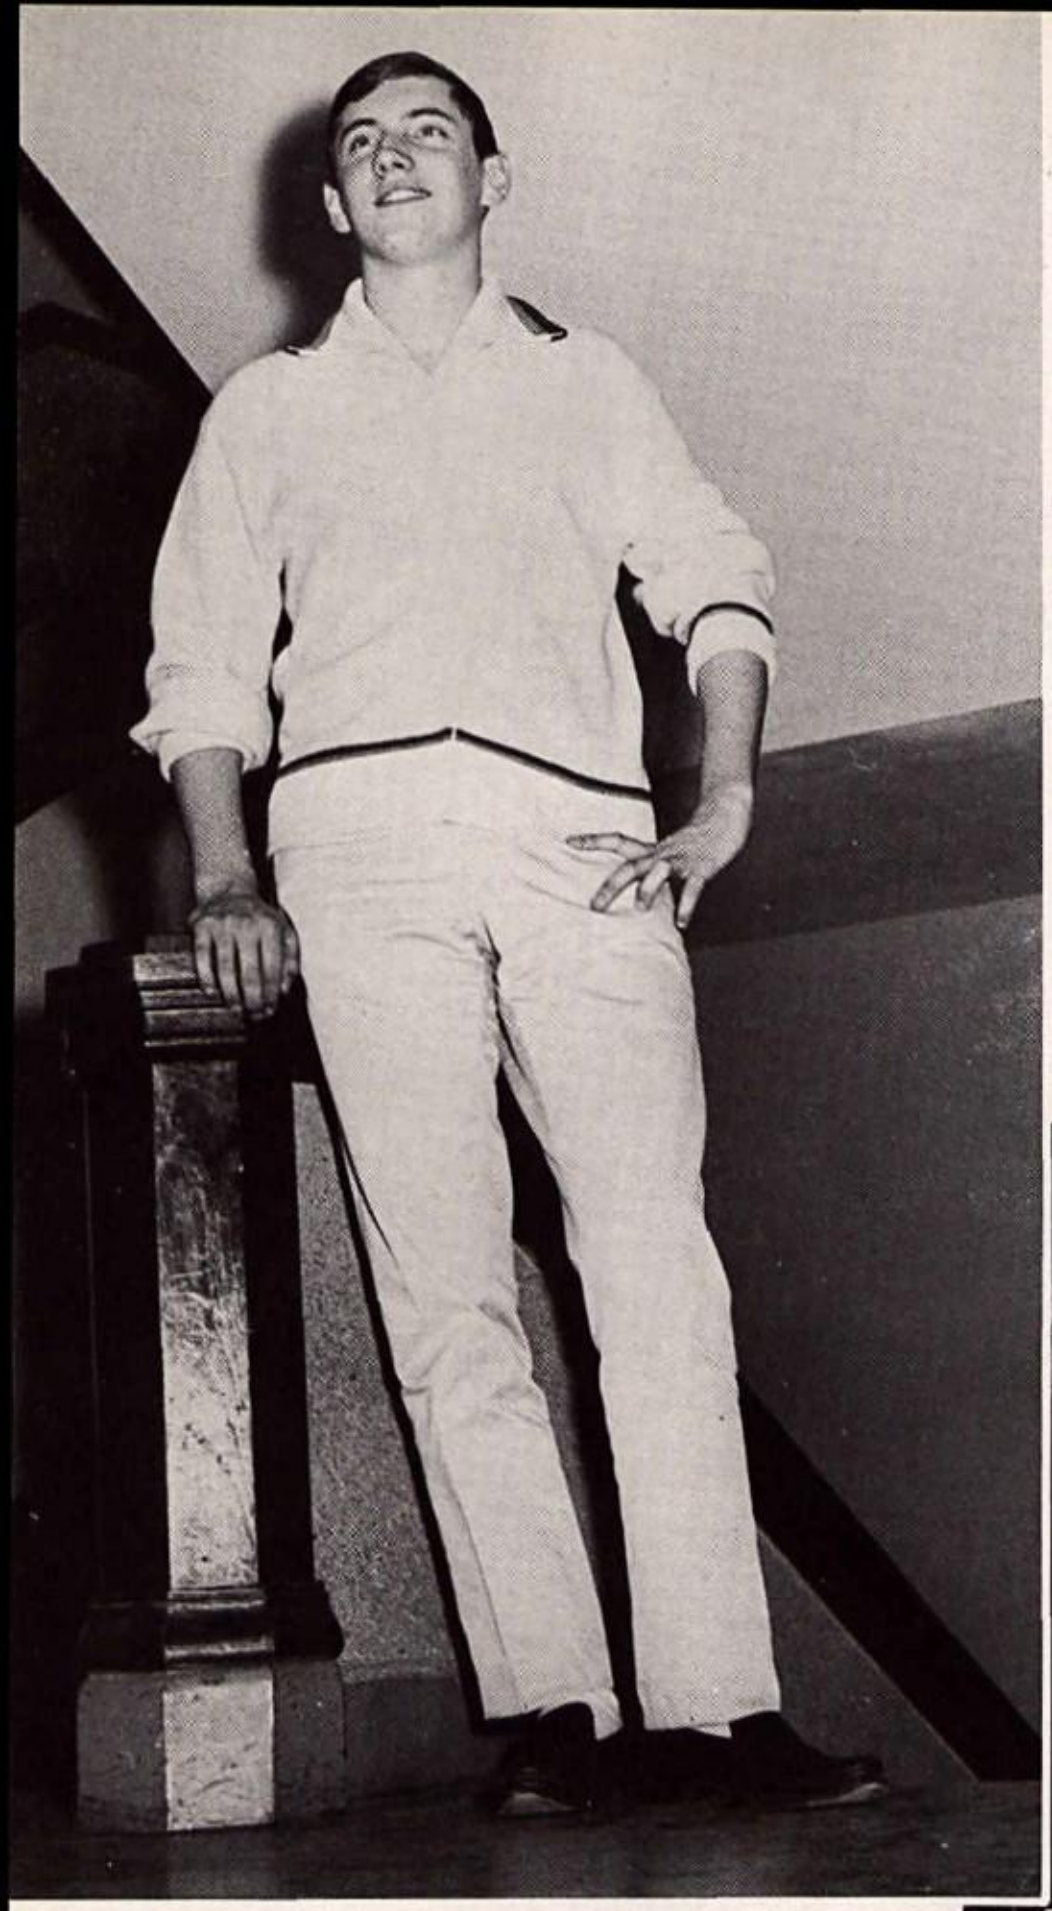
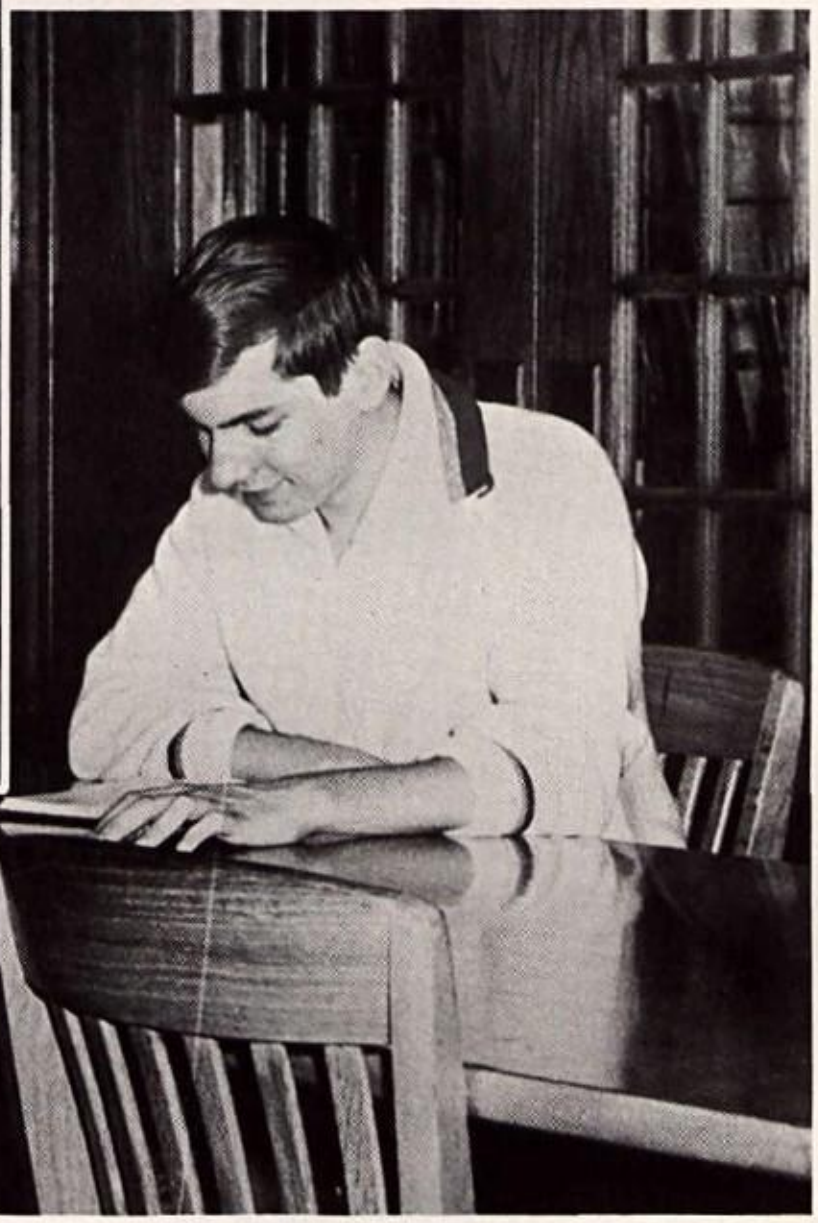
Presenting. . . . . .

The Most Outstanding Boy and Girl at East High, an honor given to a senior couple, were chosen after careful evaluation of the entire class of '61. Working in secret, students and teachers eliminated personal opinion by devising a mechanical system with which to judge each one's merits. With the help of Principal Sid F. Moore, 30 possible candidates were chosen for their high grades. After further calculation of achievements, official personality ratings, and activities, of 16 final candidates, two, Myrna Iddings and Monte Smith, ranked with top scores in all four tests.



MOST OUTSTANDING BOY
MONTE SMITH

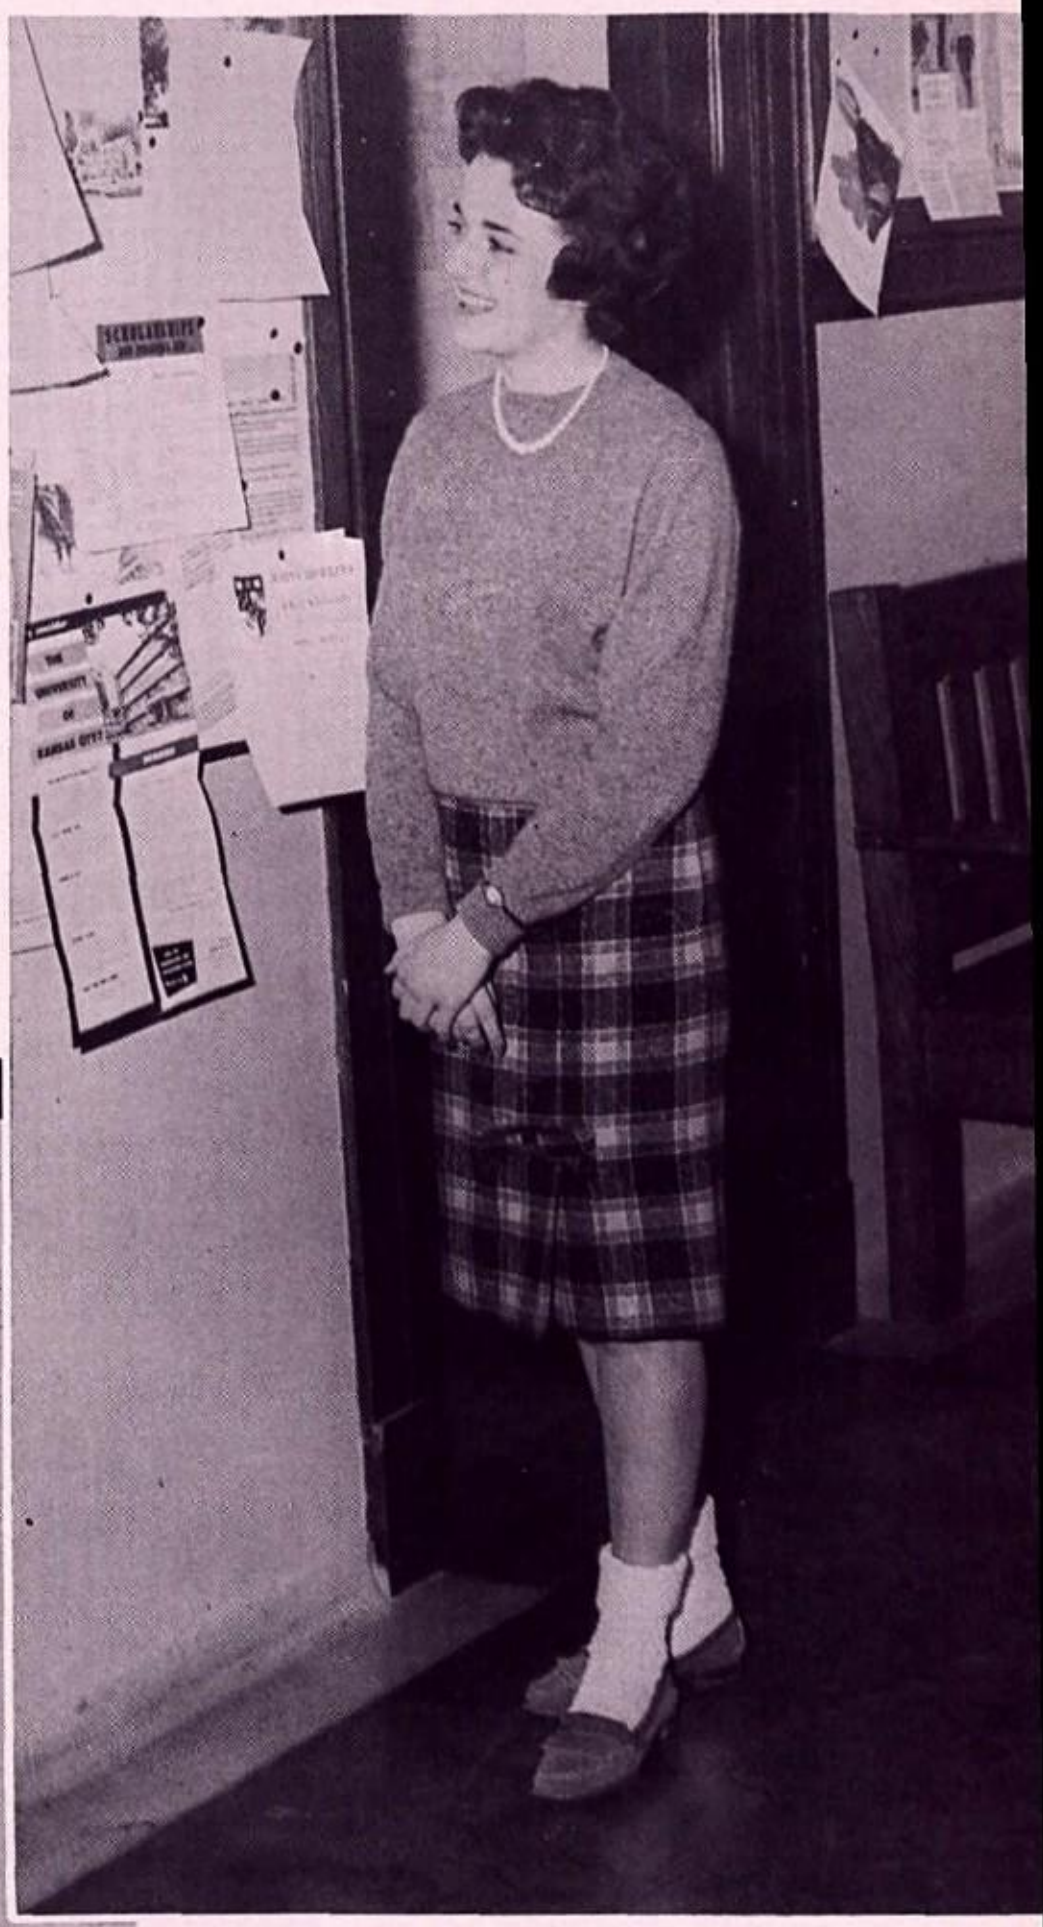


CO-ORDINATING AN "A" AVERAGE with participation in many outside activities, is a problem successfully met by Outstanding Boy, Monte Smith, '61.

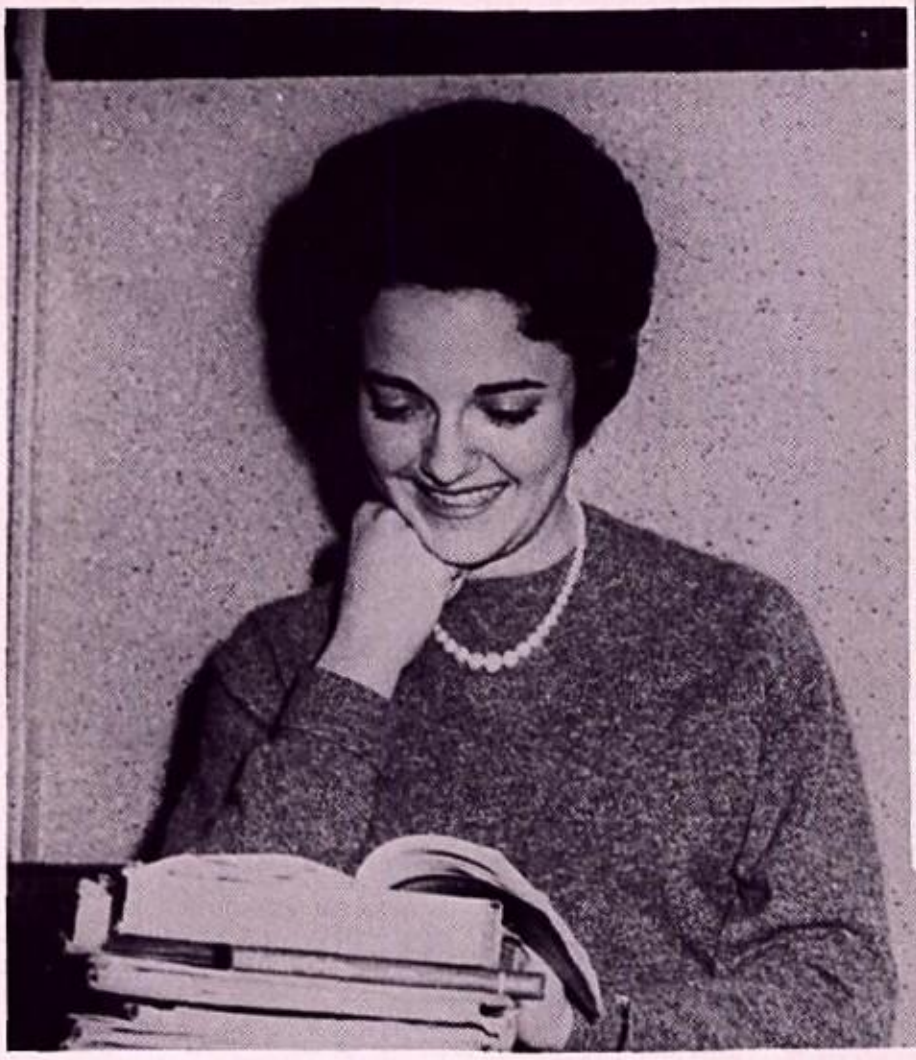
Most Outstanding Boy and Girl

Myrna Iddings, '61, has held a straight "A" average for four years. President of the sophomore class of '59, treasurer of the student body in '60, and vice-president of the student body for '61, Myrna has also found time for a part time job and many extra activities.

Monte Smith, '61, maintaining an "A" average for four years, has taken "honor courses" in English, geometry and physics. President of French Club, and Mixed Choir, and a representitive to Boy's State, Monte has also been very busy in activities outside of school.



MOST OUTSTANDING GIRL
MYRNA IDDINGS



WILLING TO TACKLE HARD WORK, Myrna Iddings, '61, has maintained all "A's" since ninth grade, which helped win her the honor of Most Outstanding Girl.

Cheerleaders add not only pep, but attractiveness to football, basketball and all East tournament games. How elections should be run, average grade requirement for membership and other important points are stated in their constitution.

It is a custom for home team cheerleaders to invite the opposing team's cheerleaders to dinner. This applies to in-town games and our cheerleaders, who pay this and the cost of out-of-town games, themselves, sometimes sell donuts after school.

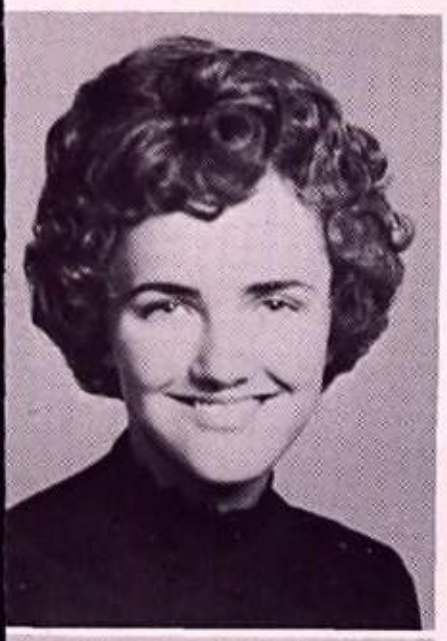
Echoes

The Press

JOURNALISM, taught by Meredith Cromer, is for seniors who are interested in writing and in school affairs.

"THE MESSENGER," this year winning an All-American award for the eighth year, has a staff consisting of 18 Journalism students who trade jobs every five issues, a cartoonist, Neal Ferguson, '61, and photographers who have changed frequently.

"ECHOES OF '61," produced by three students, has one of the smallest staffs an East yearbook has ever had. Gary Lincoln and Lloyd Litsey, both '62, helped with pictures while the main photographers were Mike Osterhout and Roger Park, members of the Echoes staff.



JUDY CAUBLE
Assistant Editor

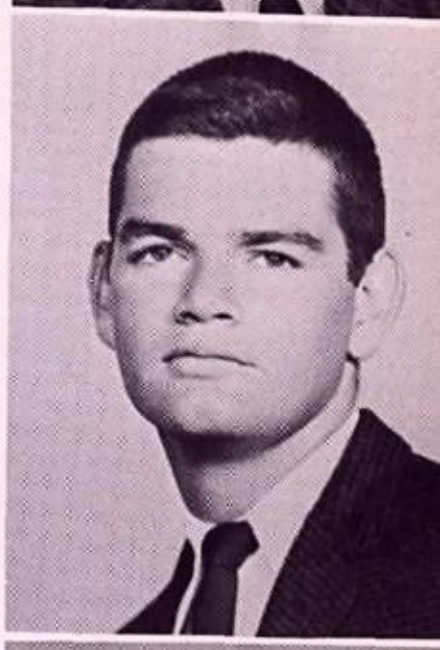
Before Judy could put her many ideas to work on the 1961 Echoes, she became ill. After many absences, Judy was finally forced to drop out of school.

MEREDITH CROMER
Advisor

Talented at getting cooperation and new ideas from his active class, Mr. Cromer is the vital man behind each story and publication.

ROGER PARK
Editor

Planning and editing each page and doubling as a photographer, Roger did the work of several people while capturing memories for Echoes of East.

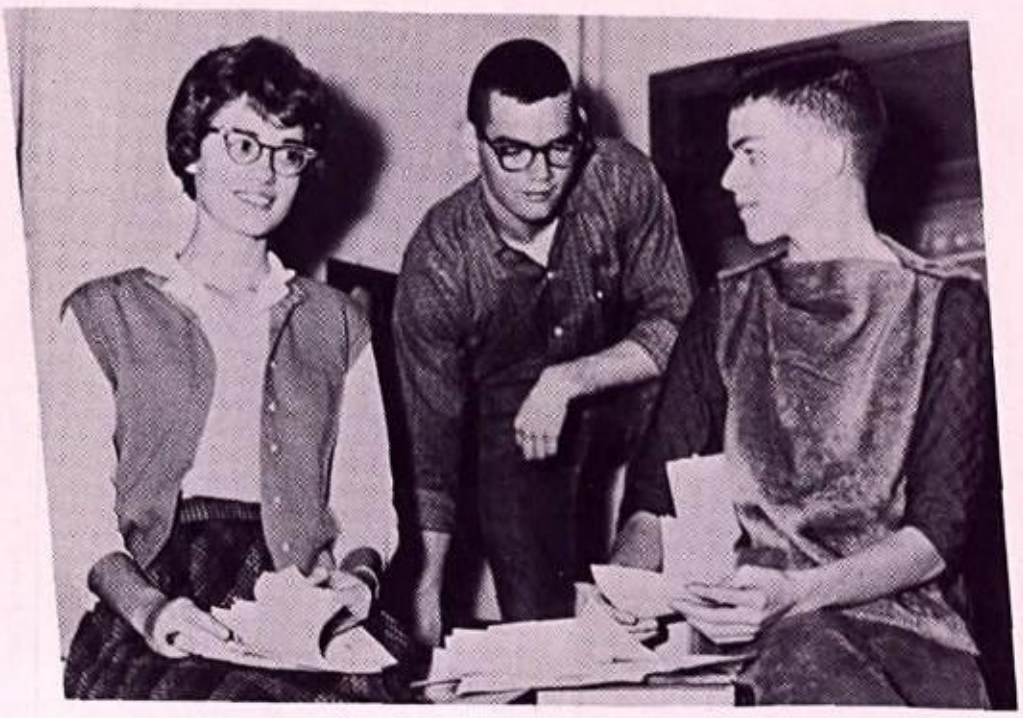


MIKE OSTERHOUT
Picture Editor

Mike spent hours taking, printing, retaking and reprinting pictures, and helping at endless other jobs to make the 1961 yearbook the best yet.

JOAN MESSICK
Copy Editor

Every word and name in the yearbook was arranged and typed by Joan and the other two members of the staff. Her goal was to make interesting each paragraph of the Echoes.



HURRIED DECISIONS are a part of putting out a yearbook for staff, Joan Messick, Mike Osterhout, and Roger Park, all '61.

Assemblies

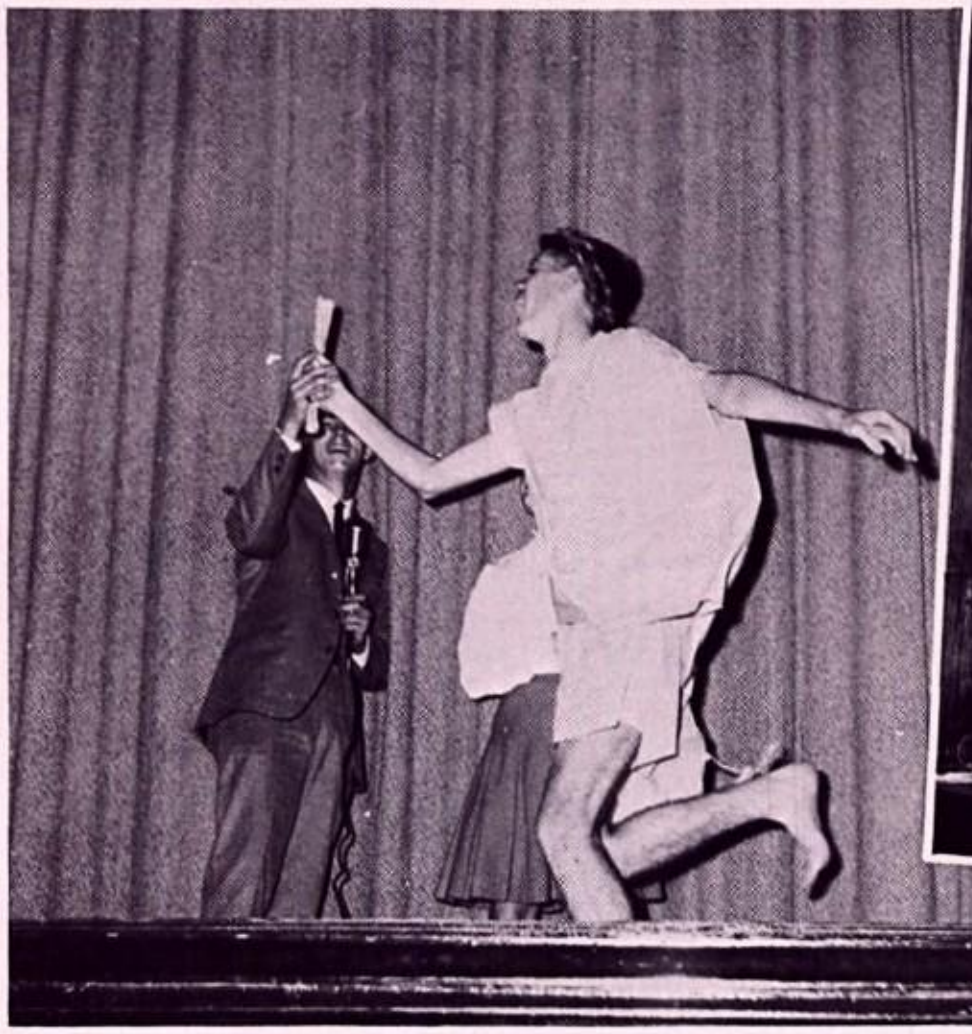
ADDING TO THE general enthusiasm of East's pep assemblies is the "Pep Band" under the direction of Marlyn Eshelman, '61.

PAUSING TO EXPRESS a point, is Lieutenant Commander George Hamilton as he presents an enlightening talk on communist brain washing.

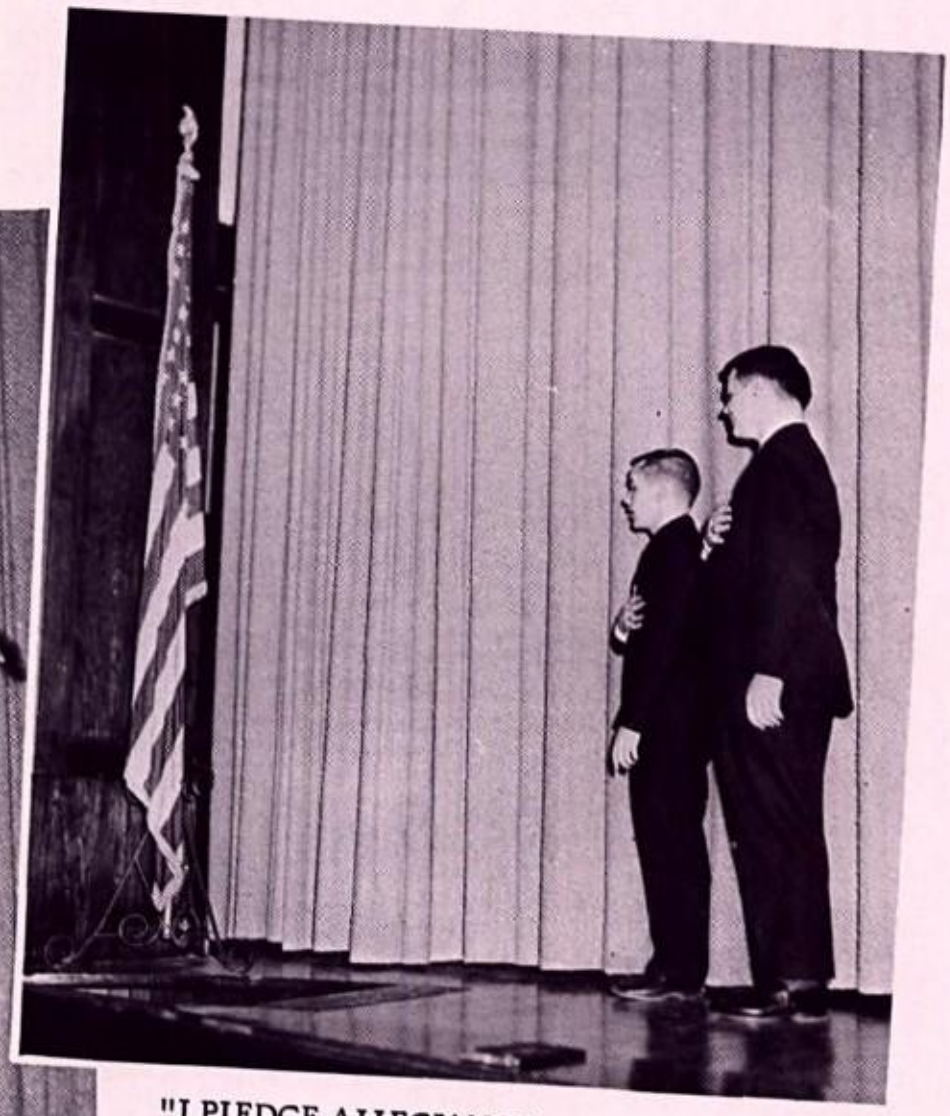
KNEELING "NORTH PLAYERS," standing East "cagemen," and an exuberant "Ci Sickles" make up a hilarious pep assembly.

Assemblies this year have proved to be both educational and entertaining for students of East. The assembly committee, ably headed by Mr. Vernon Nicholson, succeeded in providing a variety of programs to please a wide range of interest. Before game pep assemblies, under the direction of the cheerleaders, have also been enthusiastic and enjoyable.

"THE SINGING QUAKERS" of Friends University inspired Aces with the reverbrant strains of beautiful melodies.



HYSTERICAL LAUGHTER was brought forth by John Huey, Sandy Barrow, and Mike Fisher, all '61, during the Messenger assembly.



"I PLEDGE ALLEGIANCE...," the traditional opening of all East assemblies is repeated once more by Rick Knowles and Gary Price, both '61.

"JUST A FEW MINOR DETAILS..." think vocational woodworking students Gene Evans, '61, and Huston Howery, '62, as they work on a Hi-Fi cabinet.

Two skilled arts courses are offered at East under the main heading, Industrial Education. One, Vocational Education, is not available at other city public high schools, while the other course, Industrial Arts, is offered.

Boys from all intermediate schools can enroll at East if they take vocational training. They are carefully selected on their mechanical aptitude, interest, and ability to get along in their work.

Vocational Education's general objective is to train students for employment. Eight classes direct their students toward jobs in Auto Mechanics, Electricity, Machine Shop, Printing, Sheet Metal, Trade Drafting, Welding and Woodworking.

"East's vocational set up is the best in the United States," stated Jim Woodin, state director of Vocational Education.

Aside from adding to the enthusiasm and pep of home football and basketball games, the marching band was invited to appear in the Wichita Christmas Parade in late November. At the conclusion of the marching season Mr. Thompson made the annual change from marching band to concert band.

Orchestra's major event of the year was the acceptence of an invitation from Oklahoma University, asking that a concert be given there. Another high point was the solo-ensemble festival. Both band and orchestra members took time out to practice and play for ratings at this state festival.

"Bernardine," a delightful comedy written by Mary Chase, gave theatre-goers two hilarious evenings on February 15 and 16, when The East High Drama Department presented its second production of the year. The play was a comical tale of a gang of "good guys" who lived in a merry halloween world called The Shamrock. The "Big Blue" of East rolled to a 7-2 season this year, suffering their only defeats to a lucky West team and a stubborn Topeka. Even with these two stumbling blocks, the gridders managed to take first place in the City-League and were rated ninth in the state.

Four players from the Ace squad were selected to receive outstanding recognition. Larry Ledford, a senior fullback, and Bill Manire, a senior guard, were chosen for the All-City, All-Area, and All-State teams. Larry was also given All-American honorable mention. Two others, Bill Washington, a senior end, and Jim Waskiewiecz, a junior center, were picked for the All-City team. The coach for football was Jim Barger.

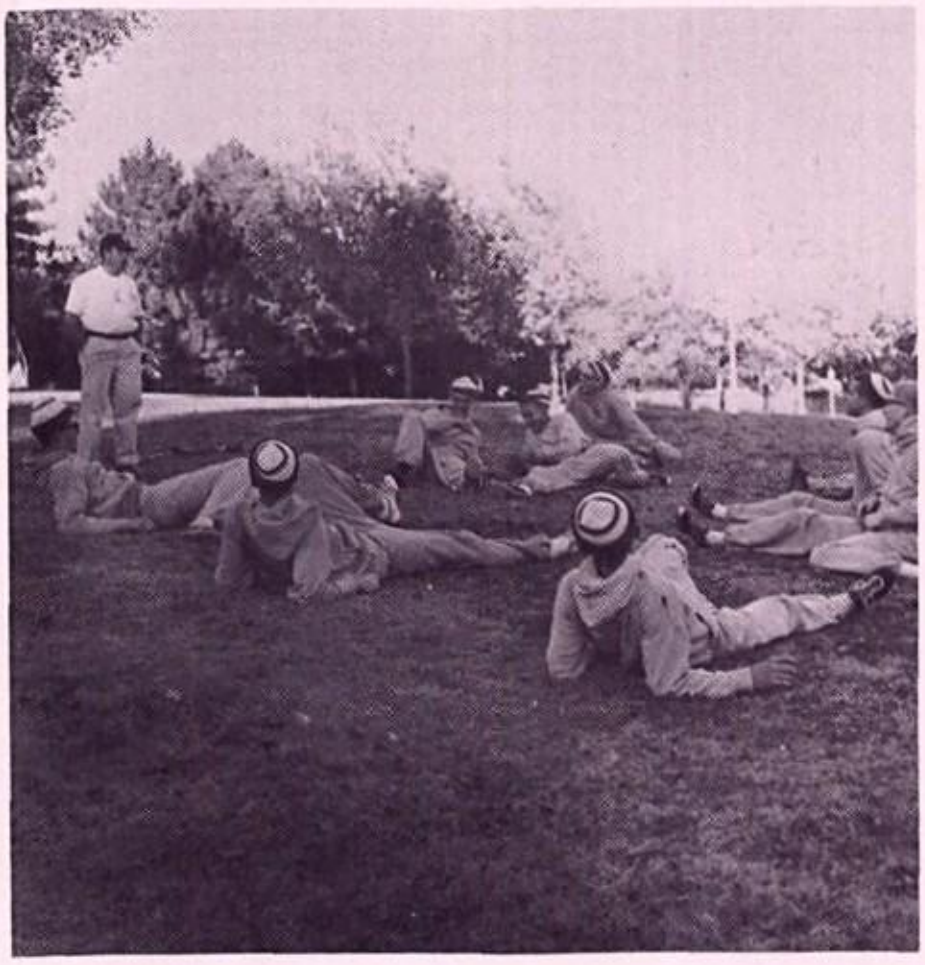
"DIDN'T KNOW my knee could be so far away," thinks stretchin' Jim Winters, '62, to laughin' David Morris, '62.

City champions, the 1960 Cross Country team also took second place in regionals and fifth in state. Boys who placed in the state meet were Dave Ware, '62, Jack Cauble, '63, Keith Thompson, '62, Ted Glenn, '61, Jim Winters, '62, Mike McKee, '61, and Bob Price, '63. The season closed with 9 lettermen. Bob Timmons coached the Cross Country team.



WHAT'CHA DOING BOYS? RESTIN'? Well, that's a typical Timmons team!

Basketball

Competing through another basketball season, the Blue Aces had a top team again this year. East took second place in the city although they had but one returning letterman, Wallace Gilkey, '61, who was named on the All-City team. Ace cage-man also won 15 of the 21 games played, including second place in the regionals. Win or lose, East gave all their opponents a good battle by demonstrating excellent teamwork.

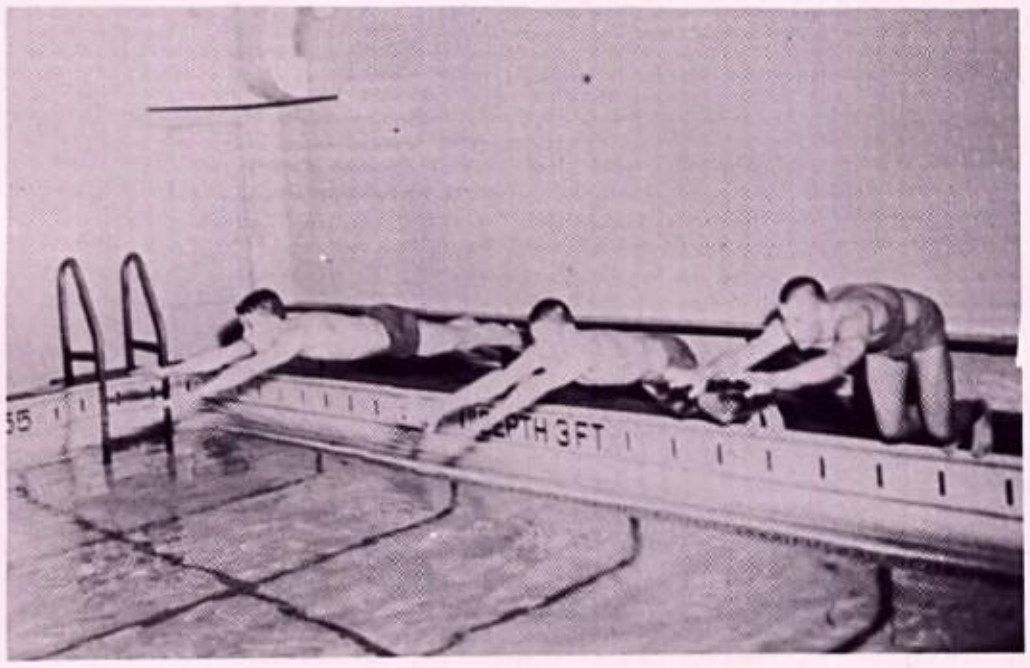
Swimming

Winning everything, East swam away with championship trophies for city, district, and state.

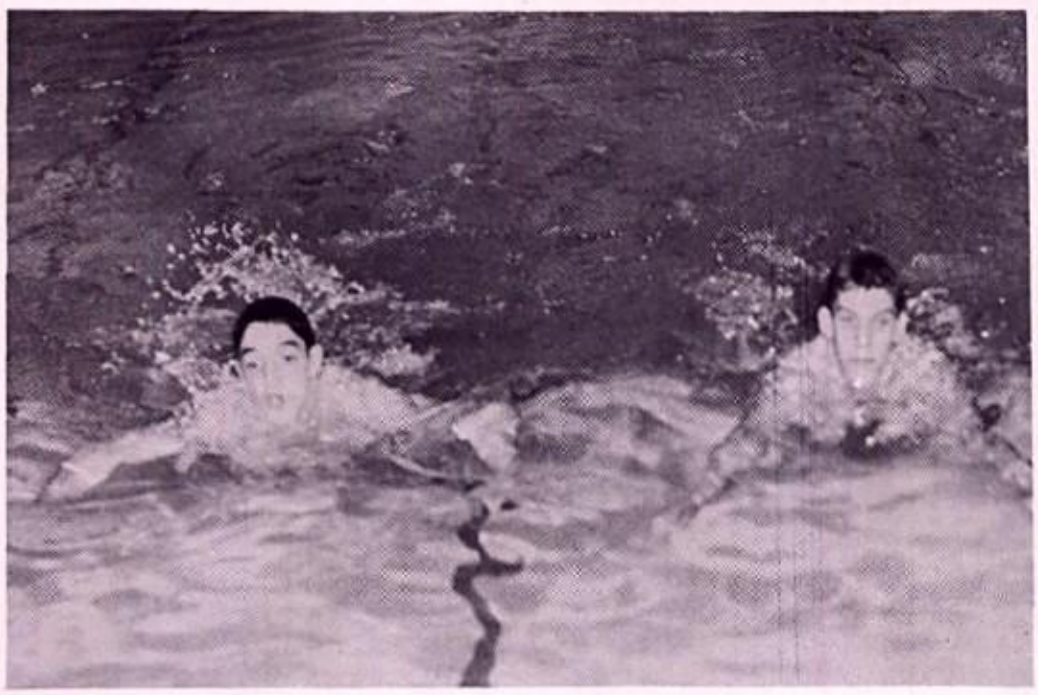
As the season ended, 16 boys earned letters and 4 broke standing records. Possible All-Americans are Mike Selig, '61, Don Hyde, '61, Mike James, '62, and Joe Henderson, '62.

State Champions

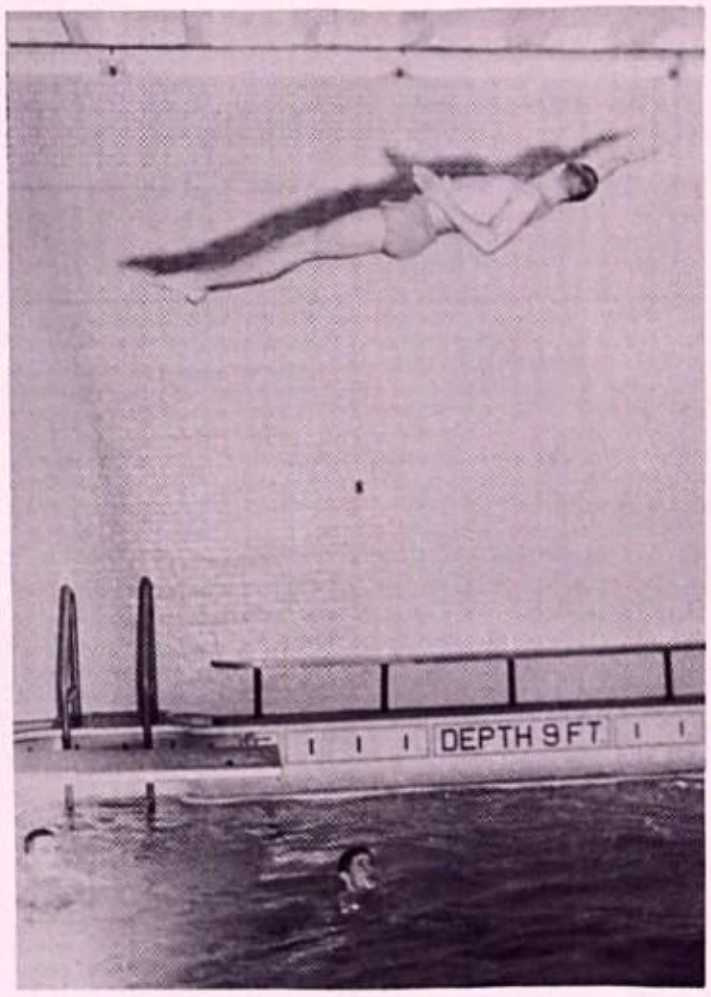
BUZZ SESSION before big business, engages East's 1961 swim team.



BERNARDINE? No, all they want is the other end of the pool. Seniors are Don Hyde, Tom Ritchie and Mike Selig.



"WATER, WATER, EVERYWHERE..." Mike James, '62, seems to be blowing it out of his way, while Don Hyde, '61, is trying to think his way through it.



AT THE HEIGHT of a dive that will soon be a perfect full twist is Tyson Whiteside, '62. Observing from a fish's point of view are Bus Lankford, '62, and Tom Ritchie, '61.

"GOLF BALLS are to expensive to be sitting around in the water," exclaims Hew Goodpasture, '61.

Golf

CLEANING HIS DRIVER, after a hard afternoon of golf, is Parke Reid, '61.

Golfers at East High began their action on April 5. Coach Don Wright has only two returning lettermen, Hew Goodpasture, '61, and Parke Reid, also '61, among his 40 squad members.

RETURNING TRACK LETTERMEN are, standing: T. Boyle, N. Elliott, K. Thompson, B. Hanson, J. Winters. Kneeling: S. McClellan, N. Ferguson, C. Brown.

UP AND OVER is the motto of Nelson Elliott, '62, Ace pole vaulter.

Cinder Side Lights

Recapturing the state championship is the task of Coach Bob Timmons and his thinclads as they race through the 1961 track season. "RUNNING A MILE RACE is hard work," thinks Mike McKee, '61, as he strains to maintain his lead.

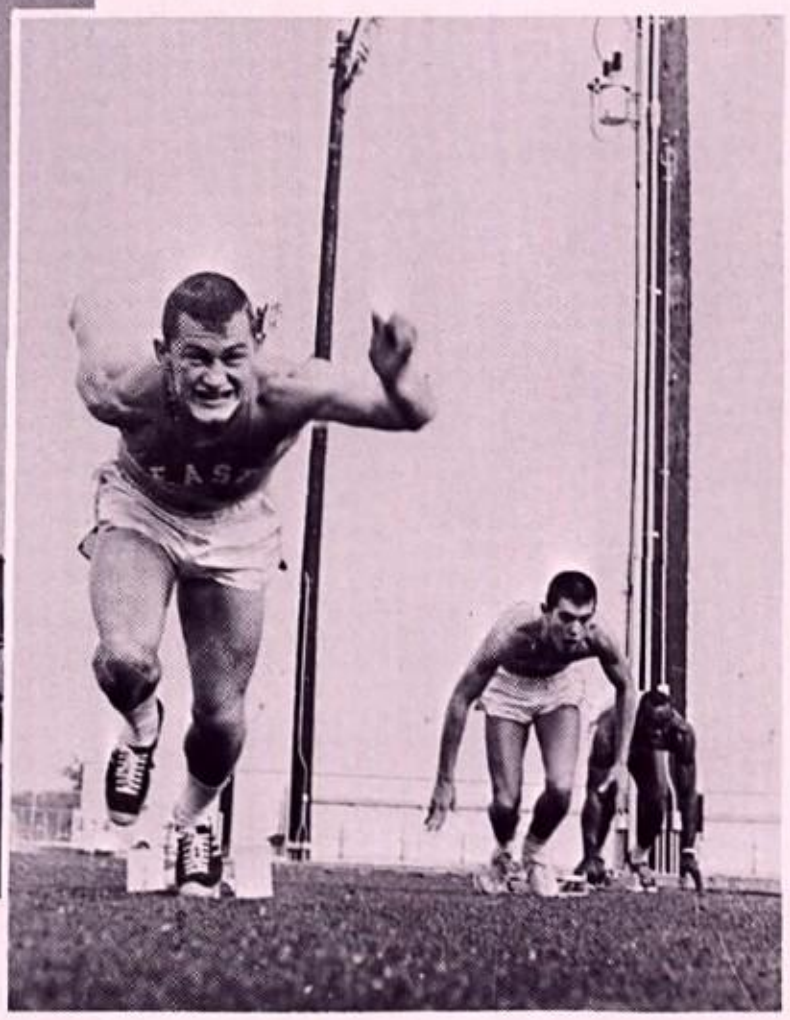
"I THREW a javelin into the air, it fell to earth I know not where," recites Dave Wilson, '63.



BLASTING FROM THE STARTING BLOCK are Charlie Brown, Neal Ferguson, and Sherman McClellan, all '61.

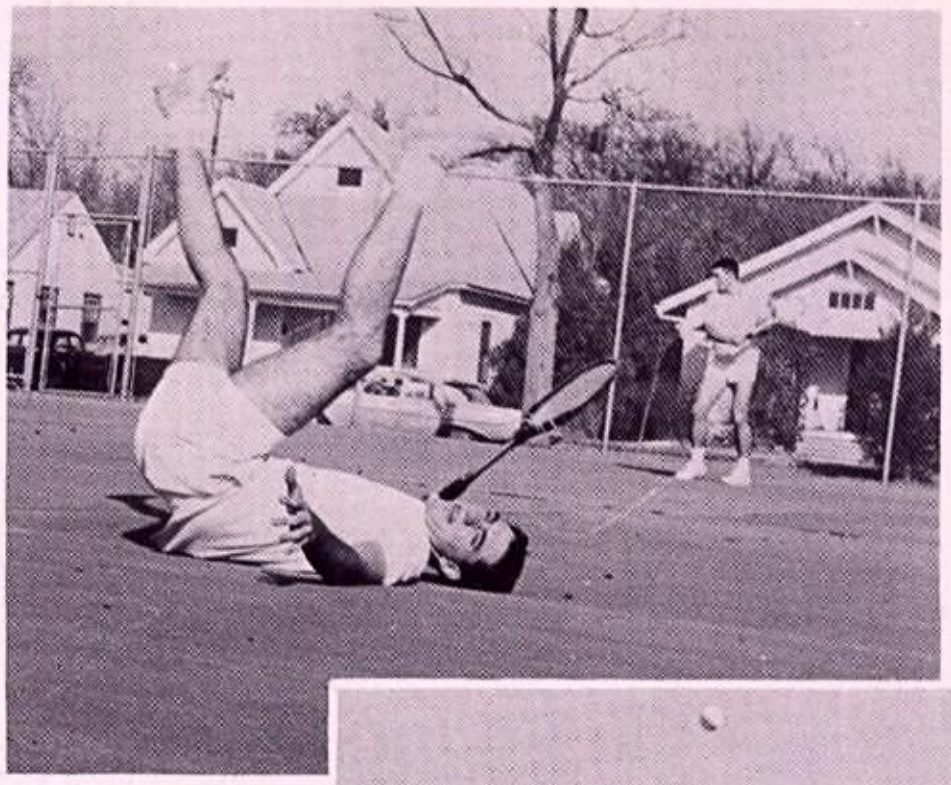
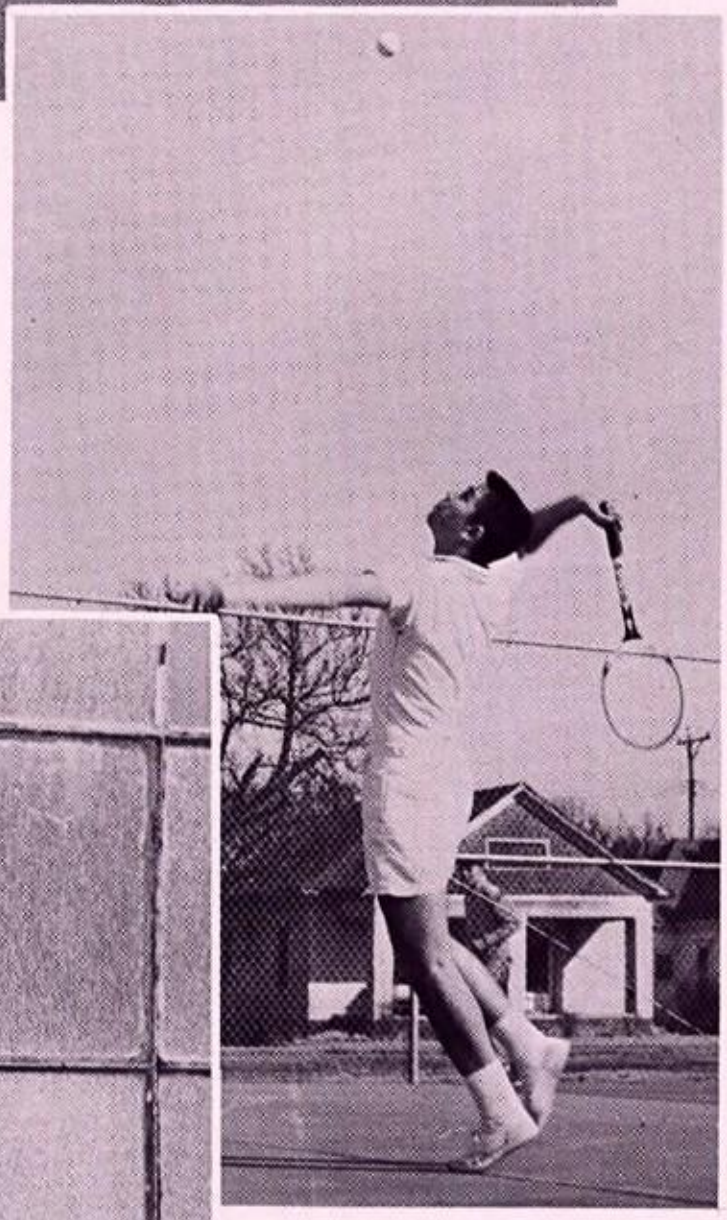
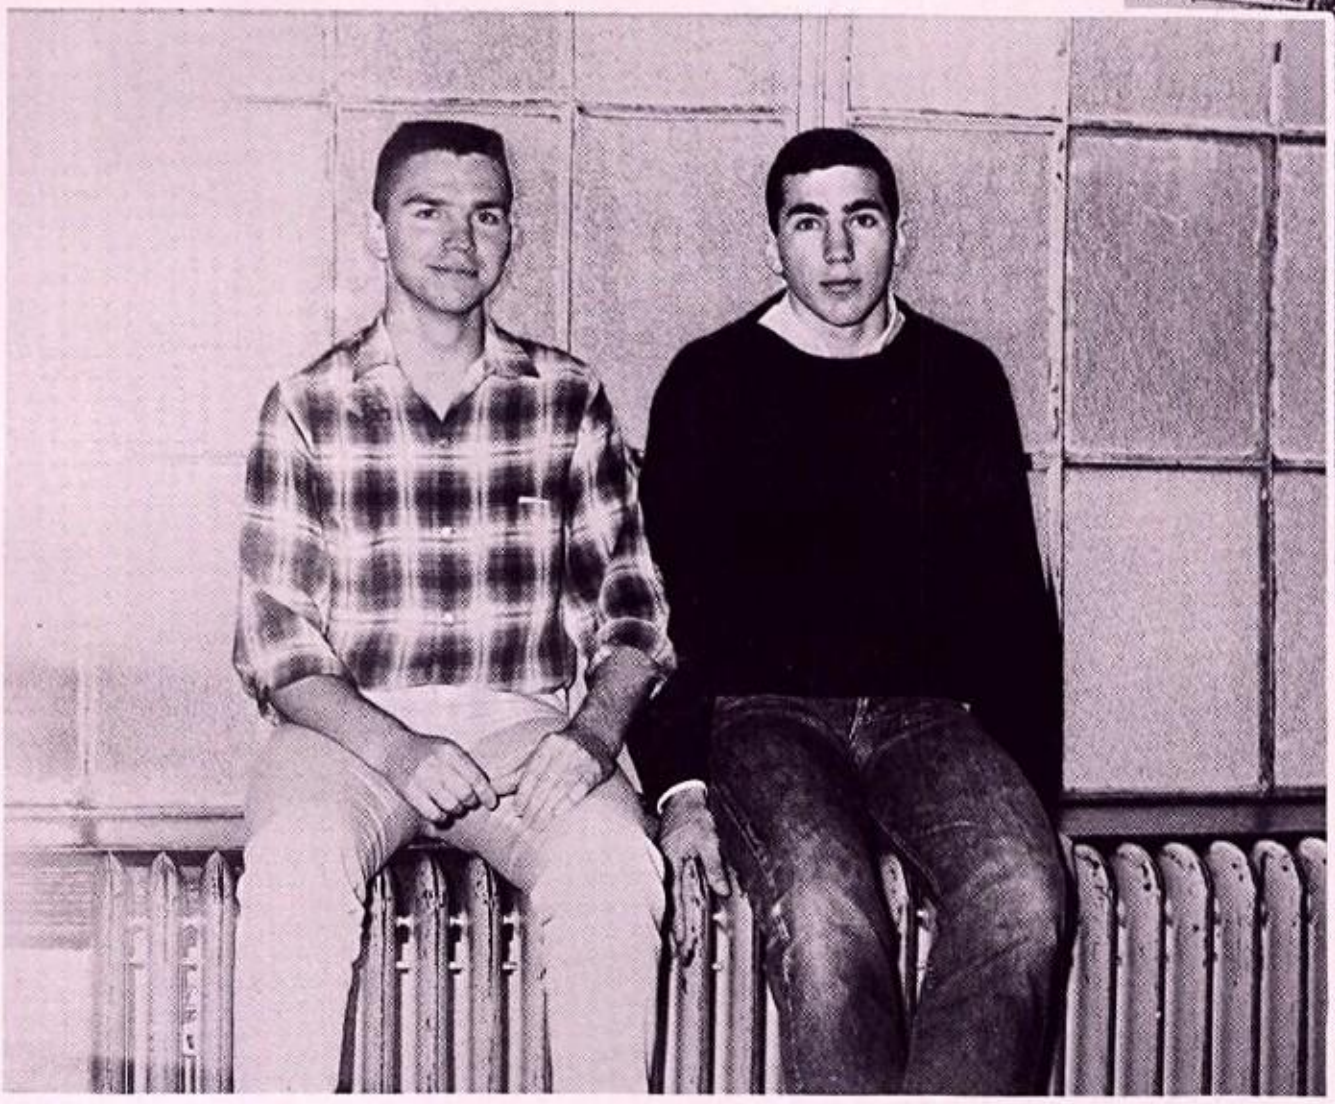
East began the tennis season in a duel meet with West, and will contest all city league teams during the remainder of the schedule.



"GRACE AND POISE are important factors in tennis." as Collins Cunningham, '61, graciously demonstrates.



WAITING FOR THE RIGHT moment...Gary Wilson, '61, stands ready to smash home a court victory.



RETURNING LETTERMEN for the tennis team this year are G. Wilson and B. Mullen.

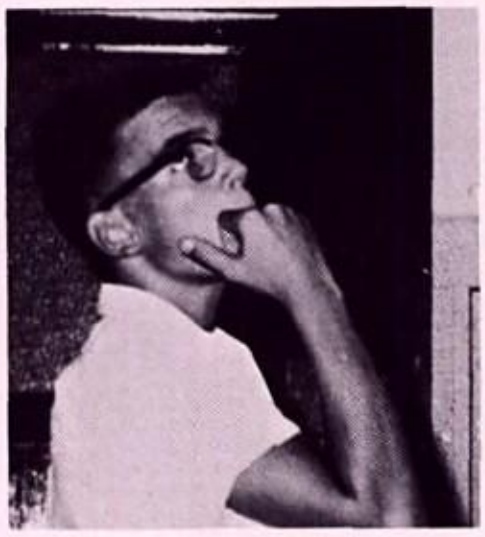
KEEP THE CAMPUS CLEAN is the slogan of Bambie Dillon, '62, as he adds sophomore litter, John Paul Jackson, to the other trash.

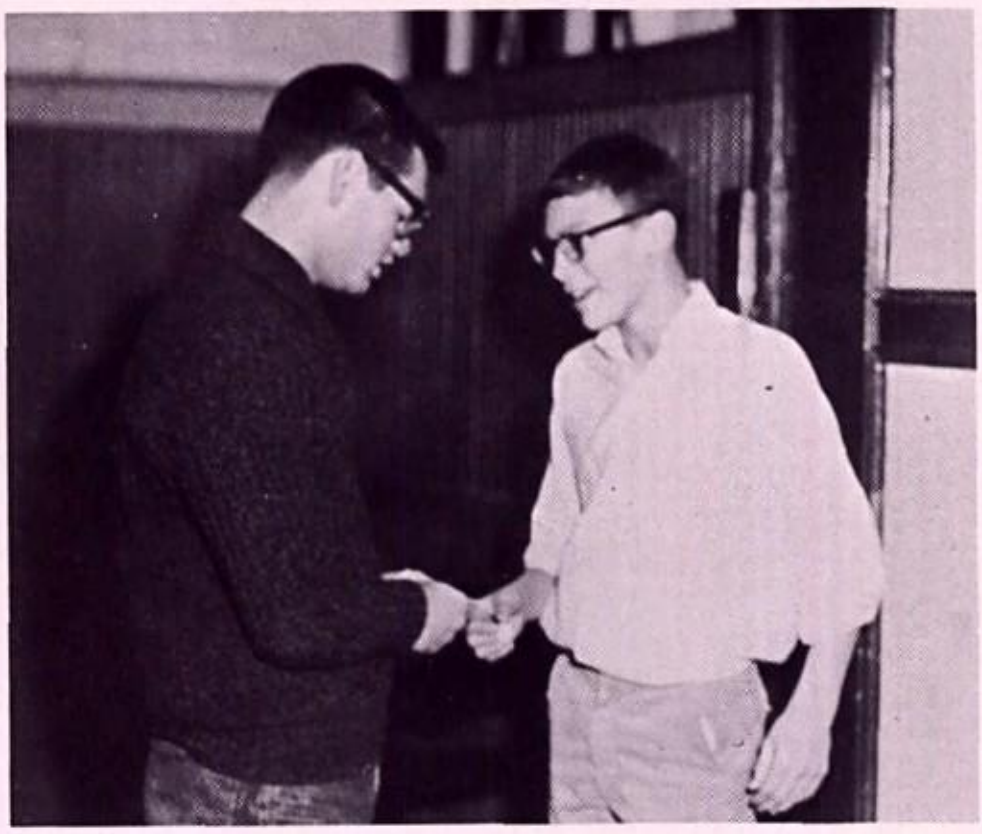
'63



TAKE YOUR FINGER OUT of your mouth, sonny. When you get to be a junior you'll be too big for that. Or maybe it's just shock over the scene in the picture above for John Myer, '63.

"SHE STEPPED ON MY FINGER!" Studying the remains left by Kaye Sponenberg, '63, Steve Scarbrough, '63, resolves to give up climbing ladders backward.

"THIS TELEPHONE IN MY LOCKER is so handy," remarks Kathy Edmiston, '63.



"YA' WANTA' BUY AN ELEVATOR TICKET, KID?" asks Big, Bad Senior, Mike Osterhout, to a seemingly grateful Sophomore, Alan Jezek, '63.

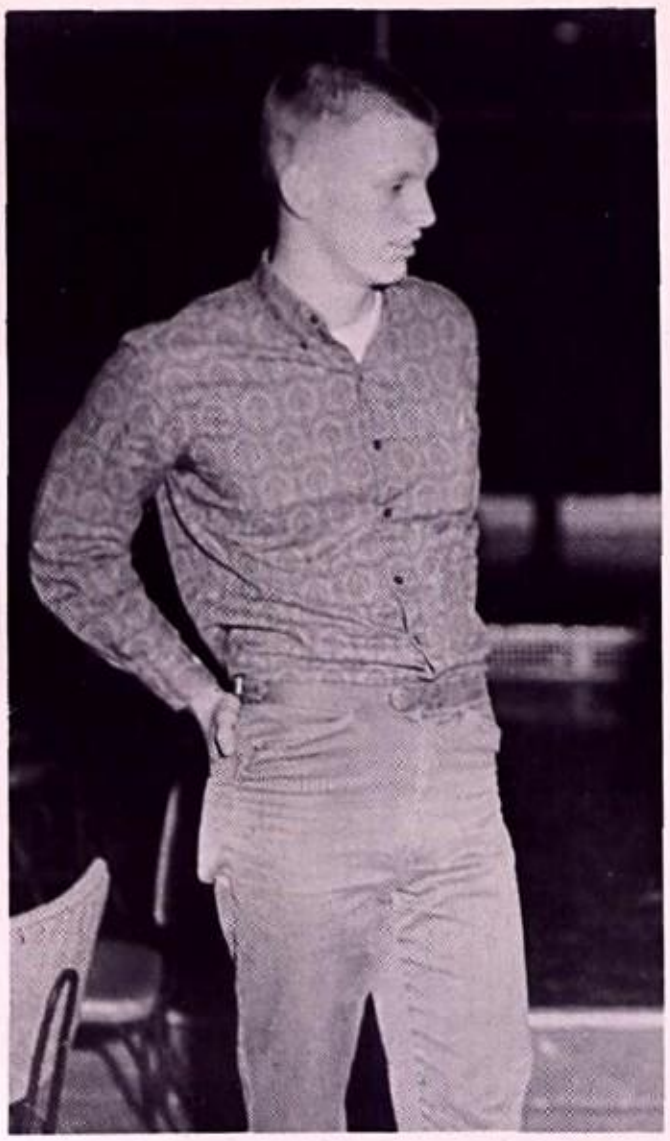
"I'M SAMMY THE SEAL!" reads senior Nancy Delehoy to a group of East's "sophomores" who are visiting this Child Care class. The little miss in front complains, "I know how it ends."

"NOW WHERE'S THAT PAPER I WAS FOLDING?" wonders sleepy Roger Park, '61, as Helen Merriman, '61, laughs at the effects of a very early morning.

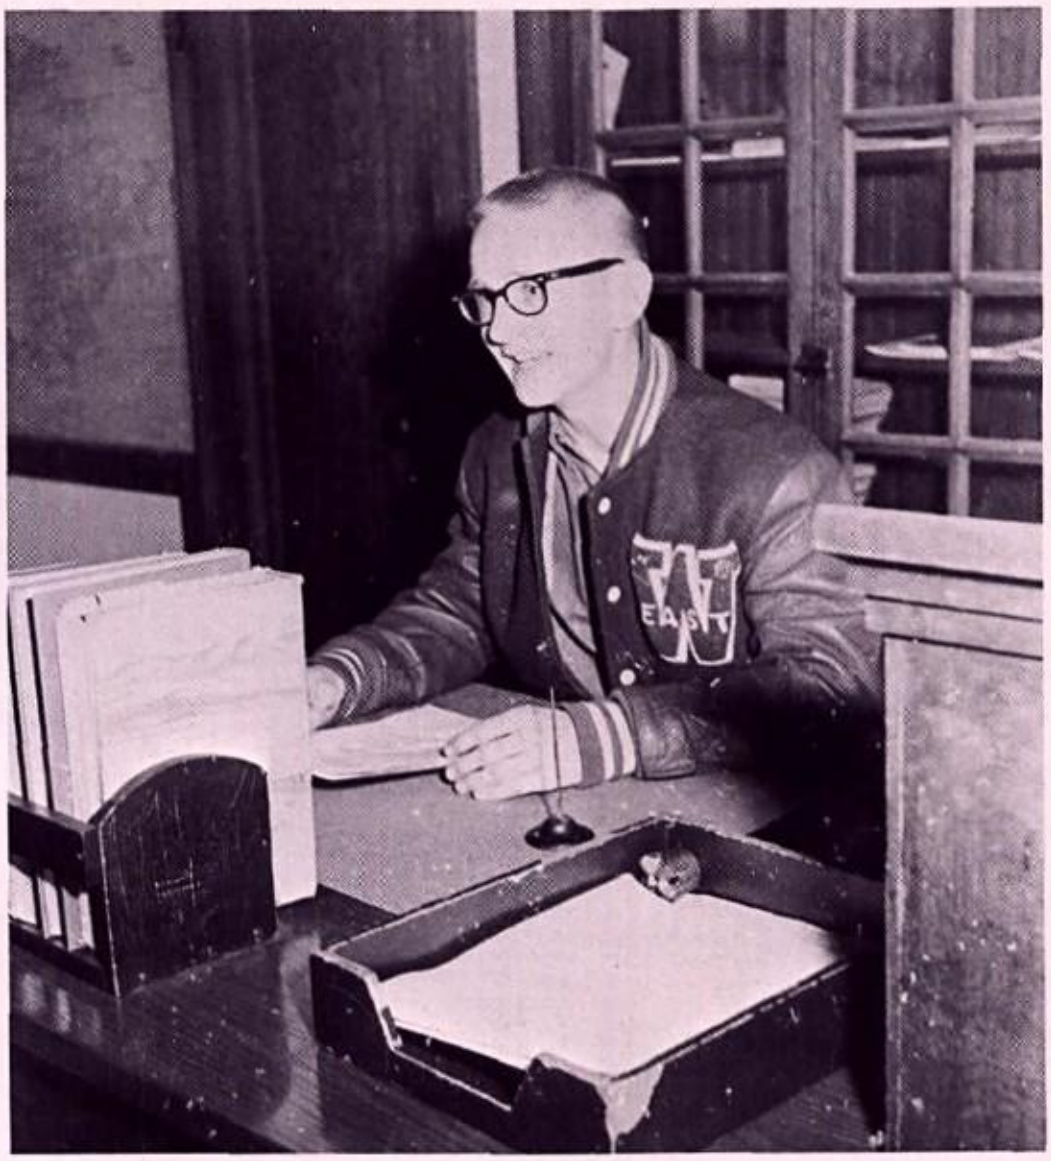
"HEH, HEH, HEH," gurgles Rick Crawford, '61, on a private tour of the school.



"HMMMM. . . " THINKING is a real undertaking for Jeff Bacon, '61.

"THESE NECKTIES ARE ON SALE FOR. . . " is the sales talk of Don Hyde, '61, while decorating a car for a big parade before one of East's first football games.

"BUT, WHAT DO I DO NOW?" asks Clinton Jones, '61, while taking "lessons" from East twirlers Pat Young, '61, Nancy Delehoy, '61, Lynda Hultgren, '62, and Nancy Banwart, '62.



"OH, HELLO, MR. McCAFFERY, I only sat down to rest a minute, Now, Mr. McCaffery. . . " cries a poor doomed senior, William Dunlap.
